

Assessment: Assessment Plan

Degree Program - AS - Psychology (MA)

CIP Code: 42.0101.00

Degree Program Coordinator: Robert Morgan

Degree Program Coordinator Email: robert.morgan@ttu.edu

Degree Program Coordinator Phone: +18068347117

Program Purpose Statement: Similar to the purpose statements already given for the doctoral programs in clinical and counseling psychology, for the PhD programs. Please see those recent and extensive files. NOTE: Our Psy MA program is an optional MA program, that is available along the way for doctoral students in clinical and counseling psychology. Thus, most results relevant to the MA are already embedded in the results for the PhD programs.

Assessment Coordinator: Steve Richards, Ph.D., 806-834-8518 (steven.richards@ttu.edu), Director of Grad Studies, Psy.

Modality: Face-to-Face

Student Learning Outcome: Knowledge

Graduate-level knowledge of statistics, research methods, psychopathology, theory, ethics, multicultural issues, professional issues, assessment, consulting, and psychotherapy

Outcome Status: Active

Outcome Type: Student Learning

Start Date: 08/23/2010

Assessment Methods

Performance - Competency Forms (Active)

Criterion: 95% pass for the numerous Competency Forms

Student Learning Outcome: Research

Successful completion, or in some cases substantial progress and near-completion by end of year 2, of an independent, empirical research project at the master's level. This includes assessment by faculty advisors and committees.

Outcome Status: Active

Outcome Type: Student Learning

Start Date: 08/23/2010

Assessment Methods

Student Projects - Second-Year Research Project (Psy 7000) (Active)

Criterion: 75% show research competency through Competency Forms, and oral and written presentations to the faculty of their research project

Student Learning Outcome: Practicum

Graduate-level knowledge of essential theory, research, and practice regarding clinical assessment, consulting, and psychotherapy

Outcome Status: Active

Degree Program - AS - Psychology (MA)

Outcome Type: Student Learning

Start Date: 08/23/2010

Assessment Methods

Performance - Assessment and therapy work with Psychology Clinic clients (Active)
Criterion: 90% pass the Competency Forms for clinical or counseling practicum