

Bachelor of Science in Physics

THREE CONCENTRATIONS

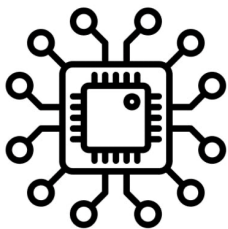

Professional Physics

- most traditional course of study
- broad but highly rigorous—prepares students for graduate study in physics

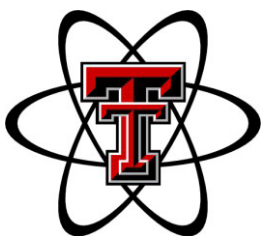

Astrophysics

- for students with a special interest in astronomy and astrophysics

Quantum Science and Technology

- for students with a special interest in quantum mechanics, including computation, metrology, & communication

Interested in learning more? Please contact the Physics & Astronomy advising office for more information:

physics.academic.advising@ttu.edu

And check out our webpage:

<https://www.depts.ttu.edu/phas/>