

TA OF THE WEEK

April 15, 2022

Jessica Lawrence

Hometown: Lumberton, Texas

Research Advisor: Joe Romano

Jessica is a TA who displays exceptional professionalism. She communicates well and quickly when a student has an issue or when Dr. West sends her an email. Her communication skills have been on full display this semester as Jessica has dealt with some difficult situations in lab and with students. She has always been professional in her responses to students and how she works to resolve those situations.

CONGRATULATIONS, JESSICA!!!
