MEMORANDUM

To: Professorial Faculty, Instructors, and Graduate Part-Time Instructors
From: Rob Stewart, Senior Vice Provost
Genevieve Durham DeCesaro, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs
Cc: Provost Galyean, Deans
Date: October 19, 2017
Subject: Requesting Faculty Input on Plagiarism Detection Software

University Libraries, Information Technology, and the Provost’s Office are evaluating the utility of plagiarism detection software currently provided through the Library. We invite your participation in a brief survey to provide input on your interest in and use of plagiarism detection software. If you do not use plagiarism detection software, we nonetheless invite your participation in the survey to share your experiences with, possible future plans for, or other thoughts about this sort of software. All survey results are confidential and will be aggregated into a brief report available to the campus community. University Libraries and the Provost’s Office will use the feedback to inform decisions about software subscriptions and services.

To participate, please visit here.

Thank you in advance for you time and assistance.