Texas Native Seeds: Permian Basin & Panhandle Project
Part-time Student Position

Location: Based in Midland, TX at 300 Marienfeld St. Suite 210. Field work will take place on Railway Ranch, south of Odessa, TX, as well as work in office. Transportation will be provided.

Website: https://www.ckwri.tamuk.edu/research-programs/texas-native-seeds

Salary: $12+ per hour based on qualifications

Start Date: Negotiable

Description: The mission of Texas Native Seeds is develop and promote the use of native seeds that can be produced commercially, in volumes needed by restoration professionals in order to have ecosystems level impacts on native plant and wildlife conservation. Our program is partnered with many private landowners, energy companies, state organizations and other research institutions to reach our goals. This position will aid in morphological data collection, transect sampling in research plantings, seed collection, cataloguing and cleaning, field operations, and project outreach. Travel may be required for some trips.

Qualifications: Juniors, seniors, or recent graduates in Natural Resources/Plant Science or related degree programs are encouraged to apply. Ideal candidate will be an honest, self-motivated person with strong work ethic and field experience. Applicants should also possess strong people skills, leadership qualities and the ability to communicate effectively. This position will require lifting objects greater than 50 lbs. at times. Successful candidates must maintain a valid driver’s license. Applicants are subjected to background checks. Applicants must be able to use software such as Outlook, Excel, Word and PowerPoint.

To Apply: Please send the following documents to samuel.lutfy@tamuk.edu with “Part-time Student Position” in the subject line.

- A 1-2 page statement of interest-describing your background, relevant experiences and interests, accomplishments, and how this position will benefit you.
- 1 page resume
- 2 references
- A copy of your current college transcript. Applicants may submit an unofficial copy.

Contact Person: Samuel Lutfy, Assistant Director

Contact Phone: (570)-903-0970

Contact E-mail: samuel.lutfy@tamuk.edu