

Harvest Cellar Intern – 2025 Vintage

Location: Texas Hill Country | Pay: $16–$18/hr DOE

Hilmy Cellars is seeking a hard-working, detail-oriented Harvest Cellar Intern to join our winemaking team for the 2025 harvest season. This is a full-time, physically active position with the potential for permanent employment after harvest.

Schedule & Hours

- Full-time: 40 hours/week, with extended hours during peak
- Up to 60 hours/week during harvest crunch
- Weekend work is required

Key Responsibilities

- Pull juice and wine samples efficiently for lab analysis
- Perform punchdowns and pumpovers as directed
- Make cellar additions under supervision
- Power wash equipment, clean tanks, bins, and work areas
- Sanitize hoses, fittings, and harvest gear as needed
- Maintain a clean and organized work environment
- Assist with basic lab analysis

Physical Requirements

- Lift up to 50 lbs repeatedly
- Stand and move for up to 12 hours/day
- Safely enter and clean tanks (and other tight spaces)
- Work in hot, wet, and fast-paced conditions
- Handle repetitive tasks with focus and care

Ideal Candidate

- Prior winery or harvest experience preferred but not required
- Comfortable with physical labor and long shifts
- Follows instructions precisely and communicates clearly
- Reliable, punctual, and eager to learn
- Must be 21+ and eligible to work in the U.S.
- Must have driver license

Compensation

- $16–$18/hr depending on experience
- Possibility of permanent cellar/lab role after harvest
