

June 12th, 2023

The Texas A&M AgriLife Research at the Lubbock center has an opening for a student worker in the peanut breeding and genetics program. The job has the following responsibilities:

Assist with the peanut lab, greenhouse, and rainout shelter studies. Duties include assisting in DNA extraction, watering, planting, weed control, taking notes on plant characteristics, and harvesting plants. Hours: 15-30 hours per week in summer, can be continued in Fall and Spring. Rate per hour is negotiable. Ability to work independently or in a team.

Applicants must have a valid Texas driver's license.

Please contact Dr. Mark Burow at telephone (806)-746-6101, or e-mail at mburow@tamu.edu.