Rawls Study Abroad Checklist

1. Want to study abroad? Here are your first steps...

Attend a Rawls CGE First Step Session held on Wednesdays @ 3:00pm in BA 145

*TIP: Bring a note pad/pen to write down and program(s) of interest and questions you may have for a CGE Advisor

2a. Faculty-Led Programs

Taught by RCOBA faculty and allows students to take short-term courses alongside other RCOBA students. Student pays TTU tuition and program fee. Grades for these courses are factored directly into your TTU GPA.

Decide which program to apply for & apply

After attending a First Step Session, if you are still unsure about what programs works best for you, feel free to schedule a meeting with CGE through strive.ttu.edu to discuss program options in further detail.

*2024 Maymester & Summer faculty-led program applications open October 1, 2023 and close March 4, 2024. *Please note, some program deadlines may be earlier. Check online program pages for the most up-to-date information.*

2b. Affiliate or Exchange Programs

*Tip: Visit RawlsAbroad.com for more information regarding these programs.

Schedule an appointment with your Academic Advisor

Please let your advisor know that you are planning to study abroad so you can plan your next semesters accordingly.

Search program options on the TTU Study Abroad website

Utilize the filters for country or term-specific programs.

Search approved course options on the TTU TEO website

Utilize the "Study Abroad" tab. Filter by country and program options.

Schedule an appointment with a CGE Advisor

Please narrow down your top 3-5 program/location options prior to your advising appointment.

Complete Study Abroad Application & paperwork with CGE Advisor

Make an appointment with a TTU Study Abroad advisor through www.strive.ttu.edu
Located at the ICC (International Cultural Center)
