Student Learning Outcomes

- Working knowledge of issues of exploration, production, management, and logistics of energy resources.

- Initial facility with interpreting, negotiating, and modifying instruments for energy transactions, and a working knowledge of financing methods.

- Working knowledge of industries’ history, global economics, social and political impact

- Working knowledge of the regulatory, legal, and policy environment in which energy is produced and delivered.

- A thorough understanding of the high value of conscientiousness in all phases of employment (discipline, attention to detail, achievement orientation, thoroughness, etc.)

Bachelor of Business Administration in Energy Commerce