Student Learning Outcomes

- Apply effective oral and written communications in the global community.

- Analyze data and situations to make sound business decisions in the global business environment.

- Understand each business function, how they interact, and how they contribute to organizational objectives.

- Evaluate political, social and cultural considerations in the global environment.

- Assess global and ethical considerations in business decision making.

Bachelor of Business Administration in International Business