Students Learning Outcomes

- Develop information systems to support business operations.

- Integrate information systems

- Analyze and mine data and text using business intelligence tools

Master's of Science in Management Information Systems