IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

Selection Process

This scholarship is awarded at the discretion of Texas Tech School of Banking and funded by GSBC. The scholarship will remain intact for the duration of the recipient's attendance at GSBC and is equivalent to approximately one-third of each year's tuition.

Award Amount

Remaining 2023 tuition (after scholarship is applied) is $3,430, which includes a non-refundable processing fee and housing and meals for the two-week session.

Enrollment Timeline

TTU School of Banking/GSBC Scholarship recipients are expected to enroll at GSBC within two years of completing TTU School of Banking. For example, if the scholarship was awarded to someone who completed TTU in 2022, the student must intend to begin studies by July 2023 or 2024.

Admission Flexibility

Second Year Direct (SYD) admission is offered to those who have completed the Texas Tech School of Banking regardless of a scholarship award, meaning those interested may apply for consideration to be admitted directly into the second year. SYD capacity is extremely limited and highly competitive; SYD placement is not guaranteed.

Deadlines

Please email Pages 1 & 2 of this document by January 1, 2023, to Texas Tech School of Banking Director Jeff Mercer (jeffrey.mercer@ttu.edu) and Assistant Director Stephanie Bohn (stephanie.bohn@ttu.edu). The scholarship recipient will be informed of their award by February 15, 2023.

Applying to GSBC

Upon news of the award, the recipient will be informed by Texas Tech School of Banking personnel and subsequently put in contact with GSBC personnel to begin the application process for GSBC. The enrollment deadline for GSBC is April 1, 2023. Upon being accepted to GSBC, the scholarship award will be reflected on the recipient's tuition invoice.

TEXAS TECH SCHOOL OF BANKING SCHOLARSHIP DESCRIPTION & GUIDELINES

This scholarship is funded by GSBC and is offered to those who have completed TTU School of Banking. Scholarship awards are available to new students attending GSBC for the first time, and there is a maximum of one scholarship award per recipient. There is a maximum of one scholarship award per year among those who have completed the Texas Tech School of Banking. The scholarship amount is worth approximately one-third of tuition each year.

TTU School of Banking/GSBC Scholarship Overview

Those interested must fill out the scholarship application and the most qualified candidate is chosen for the award at the discretion of TTU personnel.

Recipients of this scholarship may enroll as a first- or second-year direct (SYD) student based on GSBC's capacity for SYD enrollment. SYD enrollment is not guaranteed despite one's enrollment preference and is often on a waitlist basis due to the competitive nature and capacity limitations. The same annual scholarship amount applies whether scholarship recipients attend GSBC for three or two years.

Scholarship applications are due by January 1 annually with a target date of a March 1 announcement. The enrollment deadline for GSBC is April 1 annually.

Recipient Responsibilities:

TTU School of Banking/GSBC Scholarship recipients are expected to enroll at GSBC within two years of completing TTU School of Banking. For example, if the scholarship was awarded to someone who completed TTU in 2022, the student must intend to begin studies by July 2023 or 2024.

Expectations:

GSBC expects that each scholarship will be awarded for the applicant's entire two- or three-year school experience. However, GSBC reserves the right to revoke the scholarship if the recipient does not perform at the level expected. Specifically, scholarship funding for future sessions may be revoked in the following cases:

- Failure to complete required projects on time.
- If the student skips more than one year before completing the program. For example, if the student attends their first year in 2023, skips in 2024 and 2025, and then desires to return in 2026, GSBC may deny the further use of the scholarship.

Scholarships are awarded on an individual level and are non-transferrable; the award may only be applied to the tuition of the original recipient. The scholarship amount is discounted upon enrollment; refunds will be made to those who pay the full amount in error.
