

The Texas Tech Banking School SWGSB Scholar Program

The SW Graduate School of Banking Foundation is pleased to offer bankers who are graduates of the Texas Tech Banking School a $1,500.00 scholarship to the SW Graduate School of Banking at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas. The scholarship is applied toward the first-year (new students) tuition for the School. “It is our way of giving back to the banking community that has so generously supported the SWGSB Foundation for five decades,” said S. Scott MacDonald, Ph.D., president and CEO of the SWGSB Foundation.

Those wishing to apply for the scholarship should submit their scholarship application to the Texas Tech Banking School, which will make the final selection. The scholarship must be used for the 2020 Session of the SW Graduate School of Banking, which will be held May 25 – June 4, 2020.
