Rawls College of Business

SEPTEMBER 2026 SNYDER CENTER WORKSHOPS

How to Craft Your Personal Statement

Wednesday, Sep. 9 | 3-4 P.M.

Whether you're brainstorming ideas or making final revisions, this workshop can help you transform your personal statement into a memorable showcase of your best qualities. Laptop recommended. Ideal for students planning to apply for graduate school or scholarships. Fulfills requirements for the Business Writing and Executive Skills for Business microcredentials.

Smart Study Strategies: Learn to Get Results

Thursday, Sep. 17 | 2-3 P.M.

We all know how to cram for major exams. But how much do you remember the next day? Break free of the "binge-and-purge" cycle of studying with proven strategies that lead to long-term learning and academic success.

Fulfills requirements for the new Executive Skills for Business microcredential.

Strategic Time Management

Tuesday, Sep. 22 | 2-3 P.M.

How do we know if we're being productive... or just staying busy? How do we know if we're living life to the full... or just filling time? This workshop will help you reflect on what matters most to you and learn to maximize the focus and energy you invest toward achieving your goals. Fulfills requirements for the new Executive Skills for Business microcredential.
