

Jazmine Brantley

PROFESSOR OF ECONOMICS

P: 404.401.4019

A: 6827 39th St Lubbock, TX

E: jbrantley@nmjc.edu

Curriculum Vitae

Education

Ph.D, New Mexico State University, 2015.

Major: Economic Development

Dissertation Title: The Effects of Religious Freedom Laws on Employment, Small Minority-Owned Businesses and Minority Populations

MBA, Harding University, 2011.

BS, Alabama A&M University, 2008.

Major: Agribusiness Management

Professional Positions 2016–Present

Professor, New Mexico Junior College, Department of Applied Sciences and Learning Technology. (2019–Present)

Assistant Professor, University of the Southwest, Department of Business. (2016–Present)

Faculty Athletics Representative to the NAIA (2021–Present)

Institutional Review Board Member (2022–Present)

Professional Memberships

YWCA Lubbock Amend Ambassador (2022–Present)

Girls Write Now Mentor (2022–Present)

Sadie Collective Member (2019–Present)

Awards and Nominations

Faculty of the Year - NMJC (2021)

1890 USDA National Scholar Recipient (2004)

Directed Student Learning

Doctoral Committee Member, "Change management strategies that permanent secretaries in the Saint Lucia public service use to implement change in a global environment" (2021–Present)

Advised: Veronica Weekes

Doctoral Committee Member, "Analysis of New Mexico black male educators effects of underrepresentation in education" (2021–Present)

Advised: Robert Sims

Jazmine Brantley

PROFESSOR OF ECONOMICS

P: 404.401.4019

A: 6827 39th St Lubbock, TX

E: jbrantley@nmjc.edu

Curriculum Vitae

Doctoral Committee Member, "A qualitative study regarding the leadership aspects of organizational leadership's Impact on employee retention at small businesses within southwest Ohio" (2021-2022)

Advised: Courtney Moore

Doctoral Committee Chair, "Job satisfaction and job-related stress among NCAA Division II athletic administrators of predominantly white institutions and historically black colleges" (2019-2021)

Advised: Linda Bell

Doctoral Committee Member, "The specific types of leadership style expressions impact knowledge sharing among high performing teams in the telecommunications industry (2020-2022)

Advised: Jason Andrew Russell

Doctoral Committee Member, "Assistive technology adoption in an educator preparation program: a phenomenological study of curriculum development experiences" (2019-2021)

Advised: Keisha Tipton

Doctoral Committee Member, "The relationship of servant leadership attributes to career success of exempt manufacturing personnel" (2019-2020)

Advised: Syed Hussani

Doctoral Committee Member, "Leadership style and engineering research and development performance" (2018-2020)

Advised: Victoria Ogunjinmi

Published Intellectual Contributions

Brantley, J., Enomoto, C., Noor, S. (2015). The effects of religious freedom laws on employment, small minority-owned businesses and minority populations. College of Business Journal. Southern University Baton Rouge.

Technical reports and other publications

Romero, S. and Brantley, J. (2019). New Mexico's oil boom: bounty for one of the country's poorest states. New York Times.