

OCTOBER 2012

CYBER SECURITY AWARENESS: 101

With the rapid proliferation of Internet use and the increasing number of computers/electronic devices in our daily lives, it is challenging to protect ourselves from hackers, scammers, viruses, and from other online dangers.

The TTU Office of the CIO, will cover the most common pitfalls and ways to avoid them, while reaping the benefits of technology.

As part of TTU Cyber Security Awareness Month, the TTU Office of the CIO will provide an overview of online dangers and how to avoid them.

Topics include:

- Cyber security while traveling
- Managing email – common scams and frauds
- Social networking
- Online banking/shopping
- Online searching
- Passwords
- Managing and securing your personal data
- Mobile devices
- Protecting your home computer systems

Event details:

- Date • Wednesday, October 10, 2012
- Time • 11am-1pm
- Location • Red Raider Ballroom, SUB

YOU DID WHAT?!!

How to Manage Your Online Reputation

It is an understatement to say that the Internet and social media have changed the way we communicate and how our reputation is established.

Join IT Division professionals for a “lunch and learn” session on what and what not to do online to protect your reputation.

The IT Division will provide cookies and drinks,
and we invite you to bring your lunch.

Sessions are limited to the first 50 people, so please RSVP to ITEvents@ttu.edu to ensure you a space and so that we have ample drinks and cookies for attendees.
