

Pedestrian Safety Committee Members, after much very good discussion on the prior standard entrance signs, it was decided those did not communicate the safety message we are looking for. Below are a few options that are being considered. Please circulate and provide feedback from your respective areas. Thank you!

Sean Childers
Assistant Vice President for Operations
Texas Tech University

