

Office	Ballot Name	Statement
President	Alexander Cumpian	I am running for Student Government Association because I believe student leadership should drive innovation that creates real world impact. Through my work on integrating advanced technology into healthcare, I have led initiatives focused on improving how patients understand their care and actively engage in their medical decisions. I will bring that same forward thinking, collaborative mindset to SGA to advocate for students, support innovative ideas, and help Texas Tech lead in shaping the future of healthcare and technology.
President	Grayson King	Being a fourth-generation Red Raider, there is truly no end to the value I place on my desire to serve and lead others in bringing impactful, lasting change to our community and student body. From my time in Texas Tech Athletics, to my involvement in Greek life, and within the Student Government Association, I have firsthand experience seeing the traditions and values of Texas Tech being instilled in all who wear the Scarlet and Black. I wish to be elected to serve as Student Body President, to not only represent Red Raiders in all walks of life, but to help each and every student shape the legacy we will leave on Texas Tech long after our time here!
President	Jayden Owsinski	I'm motivated to lead with purpose and service by turning student priorities into meaningful action. I am committed to leading with intention for the Raider community by advocating for initiatives that enhance student life, ensure students are supported and represented in campus decisions, and increase opportunities across campus.
President	Sarah Richart	Hello, my name is Sarah Richart, and I am an independent candidate for Student Body President. As both a local public figure and student, I have seen firsthand the meaningful impact Texas Tech has on both its students and our community, and I believe every Red Raider deserves equal access to the opportunities, resources, and support needed to pursue their goals in higher education. As president, I will work to expand educational and career-development opportunities, strengthen mental health resources, enhance campus and student organization safety, and ensure our university is accessible to all students. Let's work together towards a community that sets the precedent for all others!
External Vice President	Melanie Aguilar	Wanting to become External Vice President comes from my goal of trying to make people's lives brighter. I love my peers so deeply, and EVP is a way to share the fondness that I have. Collaborating with campus resources in order to enhance the Red Raider experience, is more than just a job that comes with EVP, it is my desire.
External Vice President	Nia Baker	I am running for Executive Vice President to ensure that all student voices are heard and valued. I want the Student Government Association to be actively engaged with the campus community by attending club meetings and campus events, rather than being tucked away in an office many students never see. I will achieve this by listening, advocating, and taking action to strengthen the relationship between students and their representatives.
External Vice President	George Jacob	I am running for External Vice President because I care about making sure the voices of students are heard beyond the boundaries of Texas Tech. I am committed to strengthening communication between students, the university, and the City of Lubbock so that concerns lead to real actions and meaningful outcomes
External Vice President	Preston Parsons	Preston Parsons is a proven leader on Texas Tech's campus and in the greater Lubbock area. He is the President and founder of the Turning Point USA chapter at Tech, a Terry Scholar, a Hagan Scholar, a member of the Scovell Business Leadership Program, and serves in multiple campus and community leadership roles. He is committed to turning ideas into action and advocacy into real results for all students through principled leadership.
Graduate Vice President	Prince Ozioma Emmanuel	Serving as a graduate senator for two terms has exposed me to the immediate needs and challenges faced by graduate students and I'm willing to work with other graduate senators in achieving my goals which are not limited to ensuring clear representation of graduate students. I intend bridging the gap between our alumni body and current graduate students a process that will bring about better opportunities upon graduation.
Graduate Vice President	Lettie Morris	I am currently a second year student in the School of Law. This past year I have had the privilege of being a law senator in the student senate. Having now seen firsthand the importance of learning about our students needs, representing those needs of the student body, and knowing the impact that SGA has, I would love to continue serving Texas Tech through SGA.

Graduate Vice President	CHAKRI VORUGANTI	My name is Chakri Voruganti, and I am a Ph.D. student in the Department of Plant and Soil Science at the Davis College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources, Texas Tech University. I am running for vice president because I value inclusive, student-centered leadership and strong communication between students and administration. As Vice President of the Plant and Soil Science Graduate Student Council during 2024–25, I organized departmental seminars and coordinated speaker invitations. I worked closely with faculty and students, experiences that strengthened my ability to lead diverse teams, advocate for student engagement, and serve the broader campus community. Through my academic, research, and leadership experiences, I am committed to amplifying student voices, supporting campus initiatives, and helping build a more engaged and supportive university community.
Internal Vice President	Charleigh Feuerbacher	I am running for Internal Vice President to strengthen the internal operations of the Student Government Association and ensure senators are supported, informed, and prepared to serve. My experience as an At-Large Senator, Rules & Administration Committee member, First Year Leadership Association member, and First Year Council Co-Coordinator has given me a strong foundation in SGA procedures and accountability. My goal: to equip and empower senators to effectively serve the Texas Tech student body, and give back to the community that has truly become my home.
Internal Vice President	Sara Swedan	I am excited to serve as a strong and accessible voice for students across campus. I am committed to intentional outreach and to being present for students no matter the concern, ensuring every Raider feels heard, supported, and represented.
Senate	Ballot Name	Statement
Agricultural Sciences (Davis)	Bliss Bessire	I am an Agriculture and Applied Economics major at Texas Tech University with a strong background in leadership through a diverse amount of student organizations. I am running for Davis College Senator because I want to advocate for students, strengthen communication between SGA and the student body, and help create opportunities that support both academic and personal success for all Red Raiders and the future to come.
Agricultural Sciences (Davis)	Allie Caddell	Agriculture is an industry based on initiative, leadership, and service. I want to represent Davis College with integrity, innovation and advocate for our students as a senator. Your ideas and experiences matter, and I am willing to be your voice.
Agricultural Sciences (Davis)	Megan Collins	I am running for a seat as a Davis College Senator in order to be a bridge between the other students in Davis College and the student senate.
Agricultural Sciences (Davis)	Logyn Denbow	Hi y'all, my name is Logyn Denbow, and I am a current freshman here at Tech from Aledo, Texas. I am an Agriculture and Applied Economics major and am running as a Davis College Representative. I believe that I am great for this position because I am not running for a title—I'm running because I believe leadership means service, accountability, and showing up consistently for those around me.
Agricultural Sciences (Davis)	Bryson Owens	I am running for Davis College Senator because I want to represent the underdog. I am a Landscape Architecture Major and I feel as though there is not much representation for my major within the Davis College. I also know of very little Goin Band members in SGA and would like to represent the band as well. I have strong thoughts about infrastructure especially the new Davis College Building that will be replacing the CASNR Annex, I want to make sure that not only my major, but that all students that will be impacted by this change are taken care of and offered appropriate facilities during the transition.
Agricultural Sciences (Davis)	Aubree Peralez	I am a first-generation college student with deep roots in agriculture and a passion for advocating for students and rural communities. I am running for office to be a strong, approachable voice who listens, leads with integrity, and works to create opportunities that help all students succeed.
Agricultural Sciences (Davis)	Austin Sassenberg	My name is Austin Sassenberg. I am a freshman here at Texas Tech. I am also in the fraternity Fiji. Last year I participated in first year leadership association and I am wanting to continue my service by joining student government. I am so excited for what this year holds and cannot wait!
Agricultural Sciences (Davis)	Cade Watkins	I am running not only to represent the Davis college, but Texas Tech as a whole. All students come from different walks of life, and I believe it is our duty as student leaders to help bridge the gap between the university and the students who attend. My goal as a senator is to make sure everyone is represented and heard.
Architecture (Huckabee)	Lisa Anoka	I'm an architecture major and currently serve as an SGA Ambassador who truly cares about making campus feel like home for everyone. I'm running because I want students to feel heard, supported, and confident that their voices actually matter.

Architecture (Huckabee)	Michael Flores	The reason for me running for office is to better represent the school of architecture and provide a voice for others.
Architecture (Huckabee)	Babs Ojengbede	I am campaigning for a position on the slate because I want to be a strong voice for students in the college of architecture and help to ensure that our campus community is a place where everyone has a voice. I am a firm believer in advocacy, collaboration, and turning ideas into actions. As a representative, I am looking to help make a difference.
Arts & Sciences	Esther Adegoke	My name is Esther Adegoke, and I am a third-year student majoring in biochemistry with minors in ASL and Biology, on the Pre-Med track. And the reason I am running is that I admire Texas Tech and want to contribute in ways I can, and I believe this is another way to do that.
Arts & Sciences	Hadi Alkaabi	As a Biology major and active member of FYLA, I am passionate about enhancing student life and representing our diverse interests within SGA. I am running for senate to ensure that Texas Tech continues to grow as a place where every student has the resources and support to succeed. I would be honored to earn your vote and serve our campus.
Arts & Sciences	Demri Balerio	I am a first year here at Tech but I will be graduating a year and a semester early and i'm super excited about it! I have been on my high school student government organizing and absolutely loved the environment! I am very outgoing and love to be busy. I want to run for this position because I know that I can bring ideas and comments to the table that will be helpful and useful!
Arts & Sciences	Lulu Bass	I am running for office because of my deep love for the Texas Tech community and my desire to give back to a place that has given me so much. I am passionate about getting to know the students I serve and advocating for their voices and needs. I recognize that those needs look different for every individual, and I am committed to using this position to serve the student body in whatever ways best support each student.
Arts & Sciences	Keniah Blaze	I am running for student government because I care about making our campus a place where every student feels heard, supported, and included. I believe leadership is about listening, showing up, and turning student voices and ideas into real action. I'm committed to making changes, advocating for all students and helping our community to grow!
Arts & Sciences	Janeli Carmona	I'm a third-year biology major at Texas Tech with a strong passion for service and student advocacy. I'm running for a seat because I believe thoughtful leadership, clear communication, and genuine representation can elevate the student experience and ensure student voices help shape the direction of our campus.
Arts & Sciences	Carter Christanelli	My name is Carter Christanelli, and I am running for Student Government because Texas Tech has given me incredible opportunities. I want to give back by serving the student body. I'm committed to being accessible, hardworking, and focused on the issues that matter most to students.
Arts & Sciences	Haylee Clevenger	Hi! My name is Haylee Clevenger and I am a Junior, Kinesiology major on the Pre-Physical Therapy track. I would love to be more involved on campus to support both the University and the students. I am passionate about creating a positive impact for each and everyone. Thank you!!
Arts & Sciences	David Crampton Jr	Salvete Omnes, my name is David Crampton. I'm a Sophomore History Major with a minor in Secondary Education and my favorite place on campus is the library. As students, our voices will be the instrument of change for our University, and as Senator, my top priority will be to make sure your voice is heard.
Arts & Sciences	Thomas Creamer, Jr	Helping others has always been a passion of mine whether it be in healthcare, friends and family, or an animal. By running for senate, it will open a door to allow me to help students at our school make a difference by giving them a voice in our student government. I am passionate about being a leader in our community and helping each and every one of us strive for success.
Arts & Sciences	Felicia Dogbey	I am an international PhD student in Geosciences, committed to serving as a Graduate School senator and being a voice for graduate students balancing research and family life. I will listen, advocate, and help make campus resources and policies more visible and effective so students can thrive in both their studies and their personal lives.
Arts & Sciences	Alexis Griffith	I'm a current first-year philosophy major on the Pre-Law track. It's my goal to serve the Arts and Sciences community, ensuring every voice is heard.
Arts & Sciences	Julie He	Hi everyone! My name is Julie He, and I'm running for a Senate position representing the College of Arts and Sciences because leadership and service have always been at the heart of who I am. I served as class president for four years in high school, where I learned how important it is to listen, advocate, and make sure every voice feels seen and valued. I would love the opportunity to continue being involved and serving my community at Texas Tech by working hard, staying approachable, and representing students with passion and purpose!

Arts & Sciences	Xiyao Jiang	Hello everyone, my name is Xiyao Jiang but please call me Jesse for simplicity. I am a biochemistry freshmen and constantly on the look to better my experience here at TTU. I hope to apply my experiences on campus towards my efforts of improving things for my peers.
Arts & Sciences	Vyshnavi Kolli	Hi! My name is Vyshnavi Kolli and I am a freshman majoring in Cell and Molecular Biology. I am honored to share that I am running for a senator position for Arts & Sciences! My purpose in seeking this role is to foster a stronger sense of connection among students while ensuring they are informed about and able to access the resources available to them. I am particularly motivated to serve as a voice for students in the College of Arts & Sciences, advocating for their experiences, concerns, and goals. To me, serving as a senator is not defined by titles or tasks, but by the responsibility to uplift others and contribute to meaningful change that will shape a better future for our campus.
Arts & Sciences	Jose Lerma Montes	To serve TTU students as a senator for the College of Arts & Sciences would be an honor and privilege as well as a huge opportunity to make necessary change and revive the Red Raider spirit! I am a First-Generation college student and American, Political Science major and Legal Studies minor and have served as an LCG mentor, Texas Leadership Scholars mentor, social media manager for The Masked Bakers, and executive board for The Hispanic Student Society. Being a member of the senate means I can take my experience in so many student organizations and the College of Arts & Sciences to create effective and meaningful legislation that addresses your needs and diverse demands. I strive to be a voice for those overlooked and be a part of creating an inclusive environment for all Red Raiders!
Arts & Sciences	Megg Lindley	I am running for Arts and Sciences Senator to be an engaged and dedicated voice for our students. I am passionate about getting involved, representing student perspectives, and working to create positive impacts within our college.
Arts & Sciences	Patrice Loftin	Hello my name is Patrice Loftin and I am so excited to be running for student government this year! I am a part of Chi Omega and Redeemer College and I love getting to be involved on campus and making new friends. I can't wait to help make a positive change on campus for everyone!
Arts & Sciences	Avi Mallik	Hey everyone! My name is Avi Mallik, and I'm a freshman Biology major in the College of Arts and Sciences. I'm running for office to make sure your voices are heard, and together we can make real improvement to student life here on campus.
Arts & Sciences	Jaden Martin	I'm Jaden Martin, a third-year Biology student, and I'm running to be a senator for the College of Arts & Sciences. I'm committed to advocating for students and ensuring that our academic experience is efficient, effective, and built around our needs.
Arts & Sciences	Nicole Ndolo	My name is Nicole Ndolo, and I am a Biology major on the pre-med track. I am running for office to increase diversity within SGA and improve representation across campus while serving as a reliable advocate for students. My experiences across campus have helped shape my understanding of the diverse perspectives within the student body.
Arts & Sciences	Chelsea Nwachukwu	Hello, my name is Chelsea Nwachukwu, and I am running to advocate for the voices that have gone unheard and for those who have something to say but do not have a platform to speak. For the women who look like me and those who don't, I will advocate for you no matter how difficult the ask may be, because every single person on this campus matters, as do their voices. Help me be the one to speak your request into existence. Go red raiders!
Arts & Sciences	Ngozi Obiajunwa	My name is Ngozi Obiajunwa, and I am a freshman at Texas Tech University majoring in Cell and Molecular Biology. Serving in the Student Senate will allow me to help create positive changes that benefit the student body. I am running to be a leader who encourages students to comfortably express their needs while balancing their education.
Arts & Sciences	Tade Olayiwole	I am running for this position because I want to be a strong and reliable voice for students. I am passionate about leadership, service, and improving communication between students and campus leadership. My goal is to listen to student concerns and help create positive, meaningful change on campus.
Arts & Sciences	Kensley Partain	I value connection, leadership, and making a positive impact on the people around me. I am running for senator because I want to be actively involved in my college community, listen to different perspectives, and help create meaningful changes that improve student life.
Arts & Sciences	Kylor Petrowski	I am grateful for the opportunities this University has given me and I want to serve and give back in any way I can.

Arts & Sciences	Reese Ruecker	I am Reese Ruecker, a sophomore majoring in Psychology. I am running for a Senator position in the College of Arts & Sciences to advocate for academic resources, represent student needs, and strengthen the connection between students and administration. My goal is to enhance the student experience and campus life while ensuring that every Arts & Sciences student feels supported and heard.
Arts & Sciences	Valentina Salazar	My name is Valentina Salazar and I transferred to Texas Tech this past Fall semester to continue my studies with a major in Political science and minors in General Business and English. With ambitions of becoming a lawyer with my own practice, I am constantly seeking opportunities to both receive guidance regarding my career path and serve the Lubbock community. With God as my rock, I am eager to polish my skills and utilize them as tools to encourage and support others.
Arts & Sciences	Alie Silveira	Hello, I'm Alie Silveira and I would love to serve as Senate! I am very motivated and have a strong desire to improve Texas Tech's campus and student life.
Arts & Sciences	Brooklyn Speer	I am Brooklyn Speer and I am currently an incoming Honors Sophomore at TTU. I am motivated and reliable, currently a pre-nursing student working to achieve my BSN/RN with TTUHSC in the future. I am currently a member of SGA first year council and I am striving to continue my involvement. Outside of SGA I am involved in Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Through leadership and service I have obtained the responsibility to seek and pursue my goals both academically and with volunteer efforts. I have pride for my university and I look forward to being an advocate for students at Tech.
Arts & Sciences	Dylan Tolliver	I'm running to be a Senator for the College of Arts & Sciences because I want to leave a lasting impact on Texas Tech and its students through SGA. I'm committed to giving every student the best Raider experience possible!
Arts & Sciences	Maria Trujillo	Hello! My name is Maria Trujillo, I'm a first-generation student, and a psychology major. I am running for the College of Arts and Sciences Senator because I understand how large and diverse our college is. My hope is to advocate for student voices, improve communication, and ensure our many majors receive the support they deserve.
Arts & Sciences	John Urizar II	As a current FYLA intern with a leadership foundation built through Army ROTC, I am prepared to advocate for the College of Arts & Sciences on day one. As a Political Science major, I am passionate about effective representation and eager to use my skills to improve our resources and student experience. I am dedicated to serving my fellow Red Raiders with honor and integrity for the betterment of our University.
Arts & Sciences	Lucas Vinson	I'm running for Senate because I want to help create a campus community rooted in strong friendships, collaboration, and student voices being truly heard. Through my involvement and relationships on campus, I've seen how much impact student leadership can have when people feel connected and supported. I'm especially passionate about improving recycling efforts and advancing environmental initiatives that make sustainability more accessible and meaningful for students.
Arts & Sciences	Zoe Wittekiend	My name is Zoe Wittekiend, and I am running to ensure that the students of Arts & Sciences can have their voices heard.
At-Large	Melanie Aguilar	Wanting to become External Vice President comes from my goal of trying to make people's lives brighter. I love my peers so deeply, and EVP is a way to share the fondness that I have. Collaborating with campus resources in order to enhance the Red Raider experience, is more than just a job that comes with EVP, it is my desire.
At-Large	Samuel Alessio	Red Raiders, For the past year, I have had the honor of serving you as a senator for the Honors College. During my term, I led initiatives aimed at improving safety for students walking from commuter lots to the main campus. I am running for another term so I can continue advocating for practical changes that directly impact student life. If you want a senator who listens, takes action, and puts his constituents before himself, I would be grateful for your support. Vote Samuel Alessio for senator at-large.
At-Large	Nia Baker	I am running for Executive Vice President to ensure that all student voices are heard and valued. I want the Student Government Association to be actively engaged with the campus community by attending club meetings and campus events, rather than being tucked away in an office many students never see. I will achieve this by listening, advocating, and taking action to strengthen the relationship between students and their representatives.
At-Large	Valeria Banuelos	I come from a diverse, first-generation background and am a bilingual student dedicated to advocating for equity and inclusion on campus. As a former Division I student-athlete and pre-med student, I am committed to listening to underrepresented voices, including minority students and student-athletes, and working toward meaningful change within our university.

At-Large	Annabelle Bennett	Throughout my past two years in the Student Government Association, I have gained many valuable lessons while advocating for the student body. Serving in the First Year Leadership Association and as a Rawls College of Business Senator, I strive to make an impactful and positive change for Texas Tech University. I am seeking to gain the At-Large Senator position to continue to represent students through integrity while, also giving each and every student a voice.
At-Large	Asher Chang	I am running for office because I believe student government should be accessible, transparent, and driven by student voices.
At-Large	Francie Chapman	Hello, my name is Francie Chapman. I'm from Canyon, Texas, and I study Agricultural Communications. Texas Tech has helped me grow in many ways, and I want to give back to the school and the people who have made my experience memorable. I am dedicated to listening, learning from new ideas, and working hard to make a positive difference in my community.
At-Large	Rhylan Corbin	I am running for office because I am passionate about serving students and advocating for meaningful progress within SGA. Through my involvement in campus organizations, I have gained experience in collaboration, leadership, and advocacy, and I am committed to being an approachable, proactive representative focused on improving the student experience.
At-Large	Alexander Cumpian	I am running for Student Government Association because I believe student leadership should drive innovation that creates real world impact. Through my work on integrating advanced technology into healthcare, I have led initiatives focused on improving how patients understand their care and actively engage in their medical decisions. I will bring that same forward thinking, collaborative mindset to SGA to advocate for students, support innovative ideas, and help Texas Tech lead in shaping the future of healthcare and technology.
At-Large	Preslee Edwards	I am running because I believe leadership is about serving something greater than myself and the students around me. I want to represent Texas Tech students with intention by listening carefully, following through on commitments, and helping turn student concerns into meaningful action.
At-Large	Charleigh Feuerbacher	My goal is to advocate for the students and their needs. As a dual-major student in both the Davis College of Agriculture and the Rawls College of Business, I offer a broad perspective that equips me to serve as an At-Large Senator. I would be honored to earn support as I seek to return to the Student Senate and continue championing the student voice.
At-Large	Addison Fitch	My name is Addison Fitch, and I am from Elizabeth, Colorado. I am running for office because I genuinely care about making Texas Tech University the best place to be for all individuals. My passion is making connecting with people and I want to be a voice for students who may not always feel heard.
At-Large	Kate Fitzmaurice	I've spent the past year serving as an SGA Senator, learning firsthand how student voices turn into real action. I'm running again because I genuinely care about campus and want to keep showing up, listening, and working to make SGA more approachable and effective for every student.
At-Large	Sophia Garcia	Hi! I am Sophia Garcia, a first-year student, and I am double majoring in Political Science and Accounting. I plan on going to Law School after college. I love being involved on campus. I am part of multiple organizations, such as the first-year council in SGA, P.A.D Pre-Law Fraternity, Women in Pre-Law Society, and Model United Nations. Being able to represent my peers and make their voices heard is something I am very passionate about.
At-Large	Amia Griffin	I'm a Junior under Arts & Sciences studying Criminology, hoping to become a Sport Attorney. I want to run for SGA because my experiences at Texas Tech have consistently placed me at the intersection of student advocacy, leadership development, and institutional accountability. Through my work with the Student Enrichment Center, I've helped educate student leaders on how to navigate university systems and access resources—yet I've also seen how many students remain unaware of the support available to them. As president of multiple student organizations, I don't just lead meetings; I listen to student concerns, translate them into action, and work within structured systems to create real outcomes.
At-Large	Paizlee Hardin	Hey yall!! My name is Paizlee Hardin, and I am running for an At-Large Student Senator position because I am passionate about advocating for the student body and creating meaningful change on campus. I am involved, approachable, and committed to listening to students and turning their concerns into action. I believe an At-Large Senator should represent all students, speak up with purpose, and work collaboratively to improve the student experience, and I am excited for the opportunity to serve and be a strong voice for our campus.

At-Large	Andrew Hernandez	I am Andrew Hernandez, a current at-large senator. I believe that my experience in this position will help me fulfill my duties. There are many initiatives that I have planned for next year and would be grateful for the opportunity to carry them out!
At-Large	Noura Islam	I am excited to create a space where everyone can learn together and support one another. I am committed to uniting people across the Texas Tech campus by creating positive collaboration, respect, and meaningful connections.
At-Large	Ysabel Islas	Hello I am Ysabel Islas and I am a freshman majoring in biology. I am running for office because I want to be more involved in the school and want to speak for others and help get their ideas out .
At-Large	Mason Jaubert	My name is Mason Jaubert, and I am a current junior level biology major on the pre-med track. I am running for office because I would like to make as much of a positive difference within the student body as possible.
At-Large	Grayson King	Being a fourth-generation Red Raider, there is truly no end to the value I place on my desire to serve and lead others in bringing impactful, lasting change to our community and student body. From my time in Texas Tech Athletics, to my involvement in Greek life, and within the Student Government Association, I have firsthand experience seeing the traditions and values of Texas Tech being instilled in all who wear the Scarlet and Black. I wish to be elected to serve as Student Body President, to not only represent Red Raiders in all walks of life, but to help each and every student shape the legacy we will leave on Texas Tech long after our time here!
At-Large	Eli Lujan	Hello, my name is Eli Lujan and I am from Midland, Texas - I am currently a second year in the Huckabee College of Architecture. I am running for a senate seat for my college because I want to improve the quality of my peers academic experience, and improve the overall quality of the college. I hope to leave a great impression on Huckabee and do what I can to help my fellow peers!
At-Large	Cooper Mau	I am running for At-Large Senator because I believe that effective leadership starts with listening to the people you represent. As a current Senator and Liaison to the Faculty and Staff Senate, I have worked hard to bridge the gap between students and administration to solve real problems, like the need for a Fall Break. I am asking for your vote so I can continue to serve the entire campus with integrity, authenticity, and a strong work ethic.
At-Large	Harper Mau	I am running for office to help make Texas Tech a more fulfilling campus rooted in unity and inclusion, where every student voice is valued and heard. I am passionate about advocating for students and working collaboratively to create a stronger, more connected Red Raider community.
At-Large	Jennifer Miranda	I am a Political Science student committed to advocacy, equity, and effective student representation, shaped by years of leadership experience and service. I am committed to representing students with integrity, engaging directly with student concerns, and advancing solutions that strengthen overall student experience.
At-Large	Parth Mittal	My name is Parth Mittal, and I am a freshman in the Rawls College of Business. I am currently majoring in Information Technology and wish to make an improvement to Texas Tech through improving its community and offerings.
At-Large	Jayden Owsinski	I'm motivated to lead with purpose and service by turning student priorities into meaningful action. I am committed to leading with intention for the Raider community by advocating for initiatives that enhance student life, ensure students are supported and represented in campus decisions, and increase opportunities across campus.
At-Large	Preston Parsons	Preston Parsons is a proven leader on Texas Tech's campus and in the greater Lubbock area. He is the President and founder of the Turning Point USA chapter at Tech, a Terry Scholar, a Hagan Scholar, a member of the Scovell Business Leadership Program, and serves in multiple campus and community leadership roles. He is committed to turning ideas into action and advocacy into real results for all students through principled leadership.
At-Large	Sarah Richart	Hello, my name is Sarah Richart, and I am an independent candidate for Student Body President. As both a local public figure and student, I have seen firsthand the meaningful impact Texas Tech has on both its students and our community, and I believe every Red Raider deserves equal access to the opportunities, resources, and support needed to pursue their goals in higher education. As president, I will work to expand educational and career-development opportunities, strengthen mental health resources, enhance campus and student organization safety, and ensure our university is accessible to all students. Let's work together towards a community that sets the precedent for all others!

At-Large	Joshua Rockson	I'm running for Senate because I truly want to make a difference. This place has given me my closest friends and also moments where I felt the most alone, yet it has always felt like home. I hope the change I aim to make here is the start of a career built on creating community and finding a sense of home everywhere I go.
At-Large	Austin Sassenberg	Hi, my name is Austin Sassenberg. I am a freshman at Texas Tech University. I am also currently in the fraternity Fiji as well as serving on the first year leadership association next year I plan to be on student government. I am so excited for what this next year holds and cannot wait!
At-Large	TK Shaker	I am a student leader deeply involved across campus organizations and committed to representing the voices of all Red Raiders. I am running to advocate for student accessibility, meaningful opportunities, and to help make Texas Tech a welcoming second home for every student.
At-Large	Elise Sharp	I am a junior Agricultural and Applied Economics student with significant experience in policy and advocacy. I'm seeking to cultivate a culture rooted in collaboration and ensure the development of substantive legislation that advances student success.
At-Large	Sara Swedan	I am excited to serve as a strong and accessible voice for students across campus. I am committed to intentional outreach and to being present for students no matter the concern, ensuring every Raider feels heard, supported, and represented.
At-Large	Luke Thurmond	Hi, my name is Luke Thurmond, and I am the youngest of three brothers that have attended Texas Tech. I am a freshman majoring in Finance and I have a desire to be as involved as I can. This University has given so much to my family and I, for this reason I feel as if it is my duty to try and give as much as I possibly can back. My overall goal while I spend my time at Tech is to leave as much of an imprint on the University as I possibly can.
Education	Sarah Adams	My name is Sarah Adams, and I am a Lubbock native and Elementary Education major at Texas Tech University's College of Education. I have a passion for education and empowering the lives of young students, one day at a time. The College of Education has a wide range of resources and mentors to support future educators, for which I am incredibly grateful. As a senator for the College of Education, I aim to be a reliable voice for my peers and will strive to uphold the honor and responsibility associated with the education profession in any way that I am able.
Education	Dey Chappel	My name is Dey Chappel and I running for Senate for the College of Education because my goal is to be an advocate for the students who are wanting to inspire young minds! I will do everything in my power to make positive change in the Education department and be receptive to requests and work my hardest to fulfill them! Wreck Em!
Education	Reese Walker	am currently a College of Education student and had the honor of serving as a Senator for the College of Education last year. Through my experience as a substitute teacher in Frenship ISD, I am passionate about advocating for students and ensuring their voices are represented within student government.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Dominic Agbon	Hello! I am Dominic Agbon, a sophomore pursuing a dual Bachelor's and Master's in Environmental Engineering. I am running for Senator to apply a dedicated, analytical perspective to student government, by streamlining how students interact with SGA, ensuring that our campus policies are as efficient and effective as possible
Engineering (Whitacre)	Josh Avila	I am a very determined and motivated student who is eager to making a positive impact for fellow students on campus. I am very team oriented and would like to contribute to different ideas to this community. Through student government I would like to support other students and help them be heard.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Kwasi Boamah	I've been at Tech for 2 years and have loved my time here; however, that doesn't mean it doesn't need fixing. I want to be able to speak on topics regarding my college and hope to see change
Engineering (Whitacre)	Ruben Castillo	I am running for office to represent those whose voices need to be heard regarding the issues and the solutions to those problems. Having experienced these challenges myself, I want to bring them to light and help change that perception. Together, we can create meaningful change and revive our campus.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Cedar Davis	I'm running for the Engineering Senator position to advocate for opportunities that help engineering students succeed in and out of the classroom. I aim to harbor bonds between the students, faculty, and industry while ensuring engineering voices are represented in Student Government decisions.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Jack Freeman	My name is Jack Freeman and I am from Dallas Texas. I am running because I am a discipline and determined to make a positive difference. I enjoy meeting new people and want to be a strong voice for students by helping those around me and improving our school community.

Engineering (Whitacre)	Gbemiga Igbekoyi	I am a motivated and committed student who is passionate about advocating for my peers and improving the overall student experience. I am running for this office to ensure student voices are heard, promote transparency, and work collaboratively to create meaningful and lasting improvements on campus.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Tami Kalu-uka	My name is Tami Kalu-Uka, and I'm a sophomore petroleum engineering student whose main goal is to strengthen student connection and representation on campus. I'm running for an office position to advocate for student needs and help create an environment where everyone can succeed.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Jun Lee	Hey y'all, my name is Jun, and I am running to be your senator and represent the College of Engineering. As a passionate member of the Texas Tech Community, I am eager to foster connections and the community that we all so love. If elected, I will work tirelessly to hear each and every one of you to gather feedback and do my best to make real changes that reflect such sentiments.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Katherine Mamwacha	I am running for this position because I enjoy serving others and working toward positive change. Having held leadership roles before, I am not afraid to step up, listen, and advocate for students as we work toward a stronger Texas Tech.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Evan McAllaster	My name is Evan McAllaster and I am in my junior year of petroleum engineering. I am currently serving in SGA as a engineering senator and as vice-chair of the engineering and academics committees. I am eager to do all that I can to improve campus life for Texas Tech students.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Mia McCall	I am seeking re-election to continue delivering thoughtful, results-driven policy for engineering students. This term, I partnered with the Dean and Department Chairs to advance solutions for academic success and campus safety, and passed legislation improving safety measures and reopening Sam's Place in the Engineering Key. By re-electing me, I will continue to strive for effective advocacy, practical solutions, and policies that put students first. Wreck Em!
Engineering (Whitacre)	Timaje Moore	I am running to advocate for increased representation and support for minorities and the overall student body within the College of Engineering. I am committed to fostering an inclusive environment and ensuring all student voices are heard and valued across campus.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Timaje Moore	I am running to advocate for increased representation and support for minorities within the College of Engineering. I am committed to fostering an inclusive environment and ensuring all students' voices are heard and valued across campus.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Nicholas Ornelas	I'm Nicholas Ornelas, a sophomore Petroleum Engineering student, and I am running for Engineering Senator to ensure students are heard and represented effectively. I am passionate about improving campus life through leadership, communication, and action.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Solomon Owuor	Hi, my name is Solomon Owuor. I am a Mechanical Engineering major, Class of 2029, and a member of the Honors College. I am running for office to push meaningful legislation that has a positive impact on campus.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Nazmus Sayadat Hossain Punya	Hi! I am Nazmus Sayadat Hossain Punya, an undergraduate freshman majoring in Electrical Engineering at Texas Tech University and someone who has big dreams for Red Raiders. I am running to be Senator for Engineering (Whitacre) College because I want to serve the students. As a Complex Council (Black Area) President, I am always working for my residents and I sincerely believe I will be able to perform my responsibilities as a Senator for Engineering (Whitacre) College duly and satisfy the students.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Gaby Repetto	Hello, my name is Gaby, and I have been a senator for the past two years since my sophomore year, making this my final run for Engineering Senator. As a civil engineering major, I am extremely passionate about the future and the possibilities it holds, and as a first-generation student, I bring multiple perspectives to the Senate. I have never missed a single meeting and cannot imagine my college experience without being involved in Senate.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Dalton Saunders	My goal is to help make our school a better place for both students and faculty. By running for office, I hope to leave a lasting legacy defined by positive change, strong leadership, and a commitment to serving others.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Makayla Spigner	My name is Makayla Spigner, and I am currently a sophomore studying computer science. I am excited to run for Senate because taking part in something that can make underrepresented voices heard is an aspect I value tremendously. In order to actively work toward ensuring that all students feel represented, heard, and supported, I want to run for senate.

Engineering (Whitacre)	Miranda Whiting	My name is Miranda Whiting and I am a Chemical Engineering major running to be a Whitacre College of Engineering Senator. I am running for this position because I want to bring positive changes to the college of engineering and to be a voice for my fellow classmates.
General Studies	Isaac De Leon	From here, it's possible that's Texas Tech's spirit. I'm Isaac De Leon, a senior at Texas Tech, army veteran, and devoted Christian, ready to step up for every Red Raider. I'm running to bring real ideas and changes students will notice, like stronger support, fresh events, better connections, making campus feel alive and fair. Let's make this happen together.
Graduate	Abdullahi M Baru	My name is Abdullahi Maikanti Baru, a PhD candidate at Texas Tech University with demonstrated leadership as President of the Nigerian Students' Association and President of the American Rock Mechanics Association. I am running for Graduate Senator to increase graduate student engagement, work closely with the Graduate Vice President to bring leadership closer to graduate students, and represent graduate interests in the Senate particularly on health insurance, immigration, funding transparency, and academic support by creating and advancing impactful graduate-focused bills. These initiatives will prioritize clear policy outcomes, measurable benefits, and consistent follow-through, including proposals that improve access to resources, strengthen communication between SGA and graduate programs, and turn graduate concerns into actionable legislation.
Graduate	Esther Onyinyechi Oji	I am a graduate student in the Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry with a strong commitment to academic excellence, leadership, and service to the graduate student community. I am running for Graduate Senator to ensure graduate student voices are clearly heard, promote inclusive and transparent decision-making, and advocate for policies that support student well-being and academic success. Through this role, I aim to contribute to initiatives that strengthen communication and opportunities for graduate students across the university.
Graduate	Voshita Parvathaneni	Hello! My name is Voshita Parvathaneni, and I am honored to be running for Graduate Student Senator. I have seen firsthand the impact that strong, student-centered leadership can have on our campus, being involved in the student government since my freshman year. Having served as a TTU College of Arts and Sciences Senator, I bring knowledge, experience, and an understanding of how student voices can be represented within the SGA. Throughout my time in the Senate, I have worked on numerous pieces that address student concerns, advocate for change, and ensure that student voices are included in decisions that affect TTU. If elected, I will work to strengthen advocacy for graduate student needs and contribute to a more inclusive Texas Tech community!
Graduate	Veronica Ray	My name is Veronica Ray, and I am running for Student Government Association Senator because I care deeply about improving the student experience at Texas Tech University, not just for today, but for the future. As a student, I understand the challenges we face both inside and outside the classroom, and I believe student voices deserve to be heard in decisions that shape our campus. One of my goals as a senator is to advocate for sustainable solutions at Texas Tech because sustainability is not just an environmental issue; it is a responsibility to future Red Raiders.
Graduate	Millicent Sifuna	I am excited about the opportunity to represent graduate students because I believe every student deserves to be heard and understood. I am committed to listening carefully, engaging thoughtfully with student concerns, and ensuring graduate student perspectives are clearly represented in SGA decisions.
Graduate	Joy Oghenekeve Solomon	Joy is a dedicated and service-driven student committed to representing student voices and fostering an inclusive, supportive campus community. She is running for office to advocate for student needs, promote collaboration, and help create meaningful opportunities that enhance academic success and campus life for all.
Graduate	CHAKRI VORUGANTI	My name is Chakri Voruganti, and I am a Ph.D. student in the Department of Plant and Soil Science at the Davis College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources, Texas Tech University. I am running for vice president because I value inclusive, student-centered leadership and strong communication between students and administration. As Vice President of the Plant and Soil Science Graduate Student Council during 2024-25, I organized departmental seminars and coordinated speaker invitations. I worked closely with faculty and students, experiences that strengthened my ability to lead diverse teams, advocate for student engagement, and serve the broader campus community. Through my academic, research, and leadership experiences, I am committed to amplifying student voices, supporting campus initiatives, and helping build a more engaged and supportive university community.

Honor College	Aniyah Bascombe	I am a first-year student majoring in Biochemistry on a pre-med track. I am running for senate as I greatly enjoy participating in campus life, meeting new people, and challenging myself.
Honor College	Julia Bulka	My name is Julia and I'm a sophomore mechanical engineering student in the Honors College. I would love the opportunity to represent the Honors College in hopes of making improvements in students' experience during their time in Honors!
Honor College	Lainey Johnson	I wish to run for a seat as a honors college senator so that I may advocate for the needs of honors college students and improve the general welfare of the student body. I believe myself to be well-spoken and approachable, so it is my hope that I may use these attributes to assist other students.
Honor College	Remi King	Hi! My name is Remi King, and I'm a freshman majoring in Energy Commerce. I'm running for this position because I love getting involved on campus and connecting with others. I hope to serve the student body and help make Texas Tech a place where everyone feels welcomed, supported, and excited to be a part of our community!
Honor College	Allie Knittel	I'm Allie Knittel, and I am running because I truly care deeply about representing students and being that strong advocate for their concerns. I'm committed to listening, advocating, and working collaboratively to help create a meaningful change on campus. I am so excited to have the chance to serve and represent students with integrity!
Honor College	Ashmith Kumbala	My name is Ashmith Kumbala, and I'm a student at the Honors College. Some of my goals as a Senator would include expanding the Honors course catalog and the First-Year Experience (FYE) program, and increasing the awareness of the initiatives offered by Honors within the TTU community, while most importantly serving as a voice for the Honors College community! It would be an honor to represent y'all and make the Honors College a better place to be a student!
Honor College	Valencia Munoz	Hello, my name is Valencia Munoz, and I am seeking a seat in the SGA Senate because I believe that representation truly matters when the community witnesses tangible outcomes. My aim is to ensure that student concerns are acknowledged, treated with importance, and transformed into actionable results. As a first-year student, I am eager to drive change at our university.
Honor College	Kate Randolph	I have a passion for advocacy and believe that the opportunity to serve as a student senator would well prepare me to properly advocate for my patients once I finish my degrees. My dream is to become a pediatric neurologist and to make a better life for myself. I am currently majoring in Biochemistry in the Arts and Sciences and the Honors College.
Honor College	James Snoddy	I am running to represent every Texas Tech student—regardless of race, gender, sexual orientation, or political affiliation. I am committed to advocating for the priorities of the student body and working to push the Honors College toward new levels of excellence.
Human Sciences	Addie Court	I am running for the position of Human Sciences senator because I truly care about my university and the people who make it what it is. I am willing to put in the time, effort, and dedication it takes to help make our university the best it can be. Being part of this campus has given me so many great experiences, and I want to give back by making sure students feel heard, supported, and valued. My team and I share a clear mission to work hard for the student body and to make sure that every student feels happy, included, and proud to be part of this university. I have always enjoyed making people's days better and bringing positivity wherever I can, whether that is by helping someone out, listening to their concerns, or simply making them smile. I believe that serving as a Human Sciences senator would give me the opportunity to do this on a larger scale by advocating for students and working to improve their overall experience. I also plan to hold myself to a very high standard and take full accountability for my responsibilities in this role. I am committed to being reliable, approachable, and dedicated, and I will always do my best to represent the voices and needs of my fellow students. Wreck Em!
Human Sciences	Avery Crutsinger	I am running for office because I want to make a difference at Texas Tech. I want to serve in a way that allows me to voice opinion, advocate, and strive for excellence. Being a senator leads to great success when we work together.
Human Sciences	Brooklyn Gilliam	Hi, I am Brooklyn Gilliam and I am from Montgomery, Texas. I am a human development major on a speech, language, and hearing sciences track. If I become senator I will be a voice for everyone and every major that human sciences encompasses and encourage student involvement and passion for their goals and studies.

Human Sciences	Madison Justice	I want to run for Senator for the College of Human Sciences because I am passionate about representing student voices and advocating for programs that support student success and well being. I am committed to fostering open communication between students and college leadership while working to create opportunities that enhance academic, professional, and personal growth within the Human Sciences community.
Human Sciences	Samantha Moreno	Hello my name is Samantha Moreno, I am a freshman here at Texas Tech and some things I love doing are volunteering, hanging out with friends, and reading. I am running for office because I am passionate about helping others feel supported and seen. I want to represent students who feel unheard and work toward making Texas Tech a better place.
Human Sciences	Alyssa Pantalici	My name is Alyssa Pantalici, and I am a Nutrition major in the College of Human Sciences on the Pre-Med track. I am running for senator to advocate for meaningful improvements that enhance the Texas Tech experience for all students. I am committed to being a strong, approachable voice for students and ensuring their concerns are heard and addressed.
Human Sciences	Auriana Ray	My name is Auriana Ray. I am a sophomore majoring in Human Sciences. I am running for office because I feel like everyone deserves representation and a voice that will speak up for them. I believe that I can do that and advocate for my college and what is in their best interest.
Human Sciences	Kaylynn Salazar	I am a Health and Human Sciences major on the pre-nursing track who is passionate about helping others and being actively involved on campus. Through my involvement in Kappa Alpha Theta and the Texas Tech community, I want to serve in Student Government to represent students, encourage involvement, and make a positive impact at Texas Tech.
Human Sciences	Anna Stelluti	My name is Anna Stelluti, and I am running for a senator position in the College of Human Sciences. I am a Nutritional Sciences & Dietetics major who is passionate about loving others and developing intentional relationships with those around me. As a second-year student and in pursuit of being a senator, I want to ensure that every student's voice is heard with approachability and care!
Law School	Kaden Mattingly	I want to run for Student Senator because I care about ensuring that student concerns are taken seriously and translated into meaningful action. The Senate has a real influence on policy and student life, and I want to be part of that process by offering thoughtful input rather than symbolic participation. I would approach the role with preparation and accountability, focused on representing the student body in a practical and effective way.
Law School	Lettie Morris	I am currently a second year student in the School of Law. This past year I have had the privilege of being a law senator in the student senate. Having now seen firsthand the importance of learning about our students needs, representing those needs of the student body, and knowing the impact that SGA has, I would love to continue serving Texas Tech through SGA.
Media & Communications	Yemi Akinyeye	My name is Yemi Akinyeye, and I'm running for senator of the College of Media & Communications. As the current senator of MCOM, I have constantly worked and fought every day to make beneficial changes for our school. As we currently shift into our next phase, the premise of my campaign is to not just listen to the needs of the student body but ultimately to advocate for the greater good, fight for change, and positively impact our school in a way that will be felt not just now but for generations to come.
Media & Communications	Daniel AuBuchon	I am a young man interested in making this campus a better place for faculty and staff. I hope to inspire positive change and be more aware of the inner workings of the university.
Media & Communications	Audrey Felux	My eyes were opened to the endless possibilities that student government allows by serving on first year council. I would love to be an advocate for students and initiate change.
Media & Communications	Campbell Foster	My name is Campbell Foster and I am a Communication Studies major, minoring in Political Science in hopes to pursue a career in politics! I am running for Senator of Media and Communications because I want to be a strong voice for not only the students in my college but fellow Red Raiders across campus. By working with others, listening to new ideas, and improving school events I hope to facilitate a better environment at Texas Tech University!
