

Executive Office	Name	Statement
President	Toby Szustak	I am running to represent my school, community, and the best path forward for Texas Tech Students. The one thing everyone can agree on is SGA doesn't work for you, so let's change that together. Join me in making Texas Tech Student Government work for you and the people you spend the next 4 years with.
President	Abigail Vega	My name is Abigail Vega and I am the Matador Movement candidate for Student Body President. I am running to be your Student Body President because I have the ambition, passion, and determination to make a difference. My many involvements across campus have equipped me to move this student body into a greater tomorrow. My time at Texas Tech has been nothing but amazing and I now hope to serve and give back to the university that has shaped me to become the individual and leader I am today! Wreck 'em!
External Vice President	Carter Arrott	Drawing inspiration from my involvement in the Student Government Association and other organizations, I am excited about the chance to make a meaningful contribution to our University and the city of Lubbock. Within the role of External Vice President, my focus will be to collaborate with the university, Lubbock, and government entities to guarantee the safety and success of students. I am committed to reinforcing current connections, elevating student voices, and striving for a brighter tomorrow.
External Vice President	Dylan Moreno	As a Biology major on the Pre-Dental track, I bring a unique perspective to the table, emphasizing the importance of unity for the growth and prosperity of both our academic institution and the local community. Together, we'll build bridges that stand strong for the next hundred years, creating a positive impact between technology and community development. Preserving our invaluable partnership with Lubbock is crucial for the well-being of our students.
Graduate Vice President	Kara Ashworth	As a recent graduate of Texas Tech and a current Master's Student here at TTU, I would love to continue to give back to the University that has given so much to me. With over 2 years of SGA involvement and many other leadership experiences on campus and in the Lubbock community, I am confident and eager to steward my opportunities and serve the people around me. Creating positive change and advocating for the issues that matter to Red Raiders is so important to me, and I would love to do that as your next Graduate Vice President!
Internal Vice President	Diego Alessio	Hey y'all, My name is Diego Alessio and I'm a sophomore double majoring in economics and finance. I currently serve as a senator for the College of Arts and Sciences and am running to be your IVP. As your Internal Vice President, I plan to amplify, protect, and defend the voices of Red Raiders everywhere. I look forward to faithfully serving an institution that has given me everything. I believe that I can effectively champion the idea that from here, anything is possible and that our best is still on the horizon. I thank you for considering my candidacy and for being a civically engaged member of our student body. Wreck 'Em!
