

Position/College	Candidate Name	Statement
President	Faith Geistweidt	Hey, my name is Faith Geistweidt and I am the Empower Evermore candidate for Student Body President. I truly believe Texas Tech University has given each of us the innate ability to pursue passions and break barriers. I will foster community by supporting student organizations, empowering growth with academic and professional resources, ensuring equal access to opportunities, and enriching campus life through vibrant and transformative initiatives. It would be a privilege to lead the student body of Texas Tech University and break barriers evermore
External Vice President	Jackson Bentley	My name is Jackson Bentley, and I am the External Vice President candidate with the Empower Evermore campaign. As a proud Lubbock local I have seen the impact Texas Tech has had on thousands of people. Empower Evermore is about honoring the historic traditions of Texas Tech, strengthening our fellow Red Raiders, and creating opportunities for every student to succeed. Everything good about Texas Tech is a reflection of its people, so together let's empower our university and each other to leave a lasting legacy.
Graduate Vice President	Taylor O'Brien	My name is Taylor O'Brien, and I am the Graduate Vice President candidate for Empower Evermore. As a law student, I aim to help Texas Tech graduate students reach their professional goals by providing tools and opportunities for success on campus and post-graduation. I have the drive and dedication to advocate for progress, and I would be honored to serve as a voice for the graduate students of Texas Tech University.
Graduate Vice President	Halkano M. Hargura	I am a graduate student in General Curriculum & Instruction. Currently the EGSO President. Transformation in unison with students and faculty members is at the core of my priorities to ensure academic (Research) progress.
Graduate Vice President	Crispus Ankomah	My name is Crispus Ankomah, an MA History student. I am running to be the Graduate Vice President to be a voice and an advocate on behalf of TTU students. I have learned a lot working as a graduate senator and I have built enough capacity to be able to serve in an executive position and serve as an intermediary between students and the TTU Leadership.
Internal Vice President	Madeline Clark	Hello! My name is Madeline Clark, and I am honored to be the Empower Evermore candidate for Internal Vice President. Over the past three years in the Student Government Association, I have had the opportunity to serve in various roles, which have taught me the value of collaboration and equity in driving meaningful change. These experiences have strengthened my passion for amplifying student voices and fostering impactful partnerships. As Internal Vice President, I am dedicated to uniting the 61st Student Senate to create lasting progress for all Red Raiders!

Position/College	Candidate Name	Statement
Agricultural Sciences (Davis)	Grayson Downs	The agriculture industry has been a vital component of my life from a very young age, and running as a candidate for the Davis College of Agriculture Senator Position is a chance to represent the people that make up this incredible industry. This is an opportunity to build relationships, instill action and serve the voices of Davis College and Texas Tech University. I am ready to serve you Davis College and commit to y'all to build a stronger and more empowering future, together.
Agricultural Sciences (Davis)	Cooper Mau	With a passion for agriculture and a commitment to our community, I am running for a Davis College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources senate spot to empower evermore. My hands-on experience and dedication to innovation will help create a stronger, more inclusive environment where every student's voice is valued. Let's cultivate positive change together—let's empower evermore.
Agricultural Sciences (Davis)	Landri Diane Ottmers	My name is Landri Ottmers and I am an Agricultural and Applied Economics major in the Davis College of Agriculture. I am so excited to run with Empower Evermore. I hope I can be a voice for the student body and be a resource they feel confident in using! I am so thankful for this opportunity. As always, Wreck 'em!
Agricultural Sciences (Davis)	Brooke Reininger	As someone who has been deeply immersed in the agriculture industry from a young age, I am beyond thrilled to announce my candidacy for the Davis College of Agriculture Senator position! The chance to represent the voices of my fellow students and turn those ideas into action is an incredible opportunity that I cannot wait to embrace. My journey as a Red Raider has already been filled with unforgettable friendships, opportunities to serve, and an unshakable passion for Texas Tech. Now, I'm ready to bring that energy and commitment to the Davis College, to serve you, and to be a strong voice for our future. Let's make our college even stronger, together!
Agricultural Sciences (Davis)	Rylee Sassenberg	Texas Tech has truly become a home for me and countless other students. I am deeply honored to be a part of this university and to embrace the incredible opportunities offered not only by Texas Tech but also by the Davis College. My aspiration is to serve agriculture students at Texas Tech in every way possible, acting as a resource to enhance our college, foster growth, and continue striving for excellence within the agricultural industry.
Agricultural Sciences (Davis)	Elise Sharp	As an advocate for the student voice, servant leadership, and agriculture, I believe in my ability to represent my fellow students of the Davis College of Agricultural Sciences & Natural Resources with our shared values as my foundation. My prior experience in leadership has equipped me with the skills necessary to challenge the norm and think unconventionally, influencing positive change that will pave the way for students that will come after us. The opportunity to serve my peers as not only a senator, but as a friend would be a great honor.

Position/College	Candidate Name	Statement
Agricultural Sciences (Davis)	Wes Shaw	Hello! My name is Wes Shaw, and I am a freshman Agricultural Communications major with a Natural Resources Management minor in the Davis College of Agricultural Sciences and Natural Resources. This past year, I served as the First Year Leadership Association President, and I am excited to continue serving the student body with the Empower Evermore campaign this upcoming year!
Agricultural Sciences (Davis)	O'Brien Underwood	I am O'Brien Underwood, an Animal Science major who is on the Collegiate Wool Judging Team, an Honor Student, a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, and a Representative for the Texas Tech Cattlewomen's Executive Council. There is nothing I like more than working to make Tech be the best it can be, which is why I enjoyed being on the First Year Council this year as a voice for all new students. My hope is to continue supporting my peers in student government and apply my collegiate and leadership experiences in this position to represent all Red Raiders.
Architecture (Huckabee)	Lisa Anoka	My name is Lisa Anoka, an architecture student at Texas Tech University and a member of the Honors College. I believe in creating opportunities for meaningful dialogue and practical solutions that benefit students in the College of Architecture. As your senator, I will work to ensure that our unique needs and ideas are represented effectively within the SGA.
Architecture (Huckabee)	Duncan Hayes	Howdy, my name is Duncan Hayes and I am from Midland, Texas. I am currently a freshman architecture student at the College of Architecture. I am running for the senate position to represent Huckabee College. My intent for this position/role is to implement multiple practices, policies, and equipment in order to make students lives easier in this already difficult major.
Architecture (Huckabee)	Eli Lujan	My name is Eli Lujan, and I am a student at the Huckabee College of Architecture. I am running for the senate position because I believe that there are changes that need to be made to the college in order to make life in the classroom less stressful, as well as making Huckabee the best it can possibly be. I would like to represent the students in the college and be a voice to their needs and recommendations that they believe are important.
Arts & Sciences	Alex Aguam	As a Student Government Senator, my goal is to enrich the Texas Tech student body by fostering connections between students and the greater Lubbock area through service. I aim to advocate for positive change in student life both on and off campus. This role presents an opportunity to enhance campus facilities, encourage participation in volunteer activities, and host events to raise awareness about community needs.
Arts & Sciences	Savannah Armitage	Hey y'all, I'm Savannah! I've enjoyed being involved in student government for the past couple of years, and I'm excited to continue representing the College of Arts and Sciences for another semester.

Position/College	Candidate Name	Statement
Arts & Sciences	Nia Baker	I am running as a senator to act as a representative for not only the College of Arts & Sciences, but the entire Texas Tech University undergraduate population as a whole. A goal of mine is to strengthen the camaraderie and knowledge of campus resources to help every student succeed to the best of their ability. Being a senator is much more than writing legislation or doing community service being a senator is doing your part to make a positive impact on a larger community.
Arts & Sciences	Doaa Bashir	My name is Doaa Bashir. I am known for my dedication and teamwork and I am committed to bringing these values to my role as Senator. My approach is always to be a listener and act in the best interest of the students, which I believe is essential for fostering a collaborative and inclusive environment.
Arts & Sciences	Libi Biju	Hello Red Raiders, my name is Libi Biju and I am currently a senator for the College of Arts & Sciences! This year I have worked on legislation that dealt with bettering transportation, including bus 60. I am running again in hopes of continuing to make changes on campus!
Arts & Sciences	Janeli Carmona	Hello Red Raiders!! I'm Janeli Carmona, a biology major who's always had a passion for helping others and building meaningful connections. From volunteering at my church to mentoring younger students, I've seen how small acts of service can make a big difference. I'm running for student government because I want to be a voice for my peers and work to create a supportive, inclusive campus where we can all thrive together.
Arts & Sciences	Paola Cervantes	I am a junior currently studying microbiology with a minor in chemistry. I am a first-generation college student of Hispanic descent fully fluent in both English and Spanish. Having spent time abroad while growing up, I offer a diverse perspective in both social and cultural aspects. I am passionate about community service and connecting with new people from all walks of life as well as listening to their experiences in order to broaden my perspective of the world.
Arts & Sciences	Ahmari Collins	My name is Ahmari Collins, and I am running for office to bring strong leadership, inclusivity, and fresh ideas to our Student Government Association. I am committed to representing the voices of all students, fostering community growth, and ensuring that every student feels heard and valued. Together, we can make meaningful changes that benefit everyone on campus.
Arts & Sciences	Addie Court	I believe I am a great fit for the senator position in the Arts and Sciences college because I love to work with people and make a difference in a community!
Arts & Sciences	Cristina Duke	As a junior majoring in biology, I am running for the opportunity to represent not only the College of Arts and Sciences but our student body as a whole. Texas Tech has given me so much, from academically enriching classes and student organizations that feel like family, to the opportunity to have once in a lifetime experiences through studying abroad. I want to make sure that every student has the chance to thrive and make the most of their time here.

Position/College	Candidate Name	Statement
Arts & Sciences	Preslee Edwards	My name is Preslee Edwards, and I am a freshman majoring in biology/premed. I am eager to run for senator because I have a passion for politics and want to use my involvement to have a positive influence throughout Texas Tech.
Arts & Sciences	Aaliyah Enos	Hello Red Raiders! My name is Aaliyah Enos and I am honored to announce that I will be running for a Senate Seat in the College of Arts and Sciences for the upcoming school year. Service through leadership is incredibly important to me along with constantly striving to make Texas Tech University a better place. I chose this role to ultimately serve others and to give a voice to those who are unheard, sparking change around me. I believe that when everyone's voice is heard, we can strengthen our community and "Empower Evermore."
Arts & Sciences	Jackson Garcia	I am Jackson Garcia, and I am running for Senator for the College of Arts and Sciences. I will be a voice, who understands students' concerns and how to approach them and tackle them. I love this school, and will work to make it better than it already is. I know how to do this job, and I can't wait to do it for you!
Arts & Sciences	Aubrey Ivey	My name is Aubrey Ivey, and I am a freshman currently in my second semester at Texas Tech University. I am enrolled in the College of Arts and Sciences and actively involved in programs such as the Women in Pre-Law Society and the Pre-Law Program. This semester, I am eager to join additional organizations and continue expanding my involvement on campus. I believe that joining the Student Government Association would be a significant achievement, as it aligns with my desire to enhance my leadership abilities and gain greater confidence in leadership roles. Being part of SGA would not only offer valuable insights into the skills and responsibilities necessary for my future career, but it would also provide an excellent opportunity to forge lasting relationships with peers who share similar aspirations.
Arts & Sciences	Emma Jameson	A consistent effort needs to be made to retain environmental awareness and involvement around campus. Continual beautification, decreasing of pollution, and recycling promotion will not only keep Tech aesthetically pleasing but make us a reputable institution for environmental care. I intend to make this a top priority throughout the University and increase environmental activities moving forward.
Arts & Sciences	Kaia Jordan	I am running for a Senator seat for the College of Arts and Sciences, I am very passionate about representing and advocating for the needs of Texas Tech students. My goal is to provide a more inclusive and supportive environment; I want every student to feel heard and empowered. I am committed to making a positive impact through transparent leadership and collaboration.

Position/College	Candidate Name	Statement
Arts & Sciences	Siwar Kefi	My name is Siwar Kefi, and I am committed to creating meaningful change for our campus community. I've led impactful initiatives like the creation of a campus-wide ADA accessibility map, a comprehensive feminine hygiene product map, and a QR code system to improve accessibility and ensure vital resources are available to all students. Additionally, as Chair, I organized the first-ever College of Arts and Sciences Town Hall to prioritize student feedback and address what students truly need. Vote Siwar for Senate—because accessibility and student needs should always come first!
Arts & Sciences	Benjamin Metler	Hello, my name is Benjamin Metler, but you can call me Ben. I am a History and legal studies major from a small town called Stamford, Texas. I believe I would be a great choice for senator because I am a hardworking individual committed to representing you, the students, to the best of my ability.
Arts & Sciences	Temi Oyedepo	I am excited and passionate about utilizing the resources TTU's Student Government Association offers to be an advocate. My time in SGA has instilled in me the confidence that I can and will make positive contributions to campus by listening to those around me. I hope to continue being a member in SGA as a very amicable senator!
Arts & Sciences	Voshita Parvathaneni	My name is Voshita Parvathaneni, and I am running to be Senator for the College of Arts and Sciences. If elected, I will use my experience in SGA's First Year Leadership Association to address student concerns and push for change on campus. Please consider voting for me in the upcoming election, and thank you for your support!!
Arts & Sciences	Alan Ramirez	I'm running for a senate position in the student government so that I can continue making changes in the lives of the student body. I want to make sure everyone has a voice and a chance for change. I want to be a senator that students can rely on, and pass on ideas to so that I can present them to the senate and spark change.
Arts & Sciences	Lily Schovanec	Hi everyone! My name is Lily Schovanec and I'm running for the Arts and Science senator position. I'm so excited for this opportunity to be a voice for my college and to get even more involved with SGA and Texas Tech. Thank you for considering me, Guns up!!
Arts & Sciences	Bobby Stephens	Hello! As a fourth generation Tech student, I am excited for the opportunity to make Tech a more engaging and exciting place. I am running for a position as an arts and sciences senator to represent everyone throughout our diverse and large college. From biology to psychology, I look forward to working toward a more representative campus.
Arts & Sciences	Christian Villegas	I'm running for office because I am passionate about making a positive difference in our community. My goal is to ensure everyone's voice is heard and to work collaboratively to create meaningful change.
Arts & Sciences	Zoe Wittekiend	Tech Tech has an amazing community of students, and I want to help their voices be heard.

Position/College	Candidate Name	Statement
At-Large	Melanie Aguilar	Hello! My name is Melanie Aguilar, and I am a first-year agricultural communications student. In the small amount of time I have been at Texas Tech University, I have grown a deep respect for its students. I am running for an At-Large Senator position to ensure TTU is a place where individuals can thrive! My ambition as a senator is to serve the student body of Tech and "Empower Evermore."
At-Large	Kevin Allen	My name is Kevin Allen, and I have dedicated my life to advocating for disability access and patient rights after personally experiencing systemic barriers in higher education. I have achieved notable milestones, such as serving as faculty in industry education sponsored by CHEST and as a patient advocate for the Pulmonary Hypertension Association, where I helped push Congress to address critical legislation, including the SOAR Act (S.3821, H.R.7829), Safe Step Act (S.652, H.R.2630), and HELP Copays Act (S.1375, H.R.830). As the founder of Beyond Barriers and Lone Star Lungs, I am working to address gaps in the ADA, Section 504, and Education Codes to ensure students who are also patients receive the support they deserve with equitable access to education and disability resources for every student needing better access on a Texas Tech campus.
At-Large	Jackson Bentley	My name is Jackson Bentley, and I am the External Vice President candidate with the Empower Evermore campaign. As a proud Lubbock local I have seen the impact Texas Tech has had on thousands of people. Empower Evermore is about honoring the historic traditions of Texas Tech, strengthening our fellow Red Raiders, and creating opportunities for every student to succeed. Everything good about Texas Tech is a reflection of its people, so together let's empower our university and each other to leave a lasting legacy.
At-Large	Davis Brimager	I am running for office to make Texas Tech better in all aspects and for all students. To bring in and establish community relationships, and how we as a University can give back to Lubbock, Texas.
At-Large	Tabor Christanelli	Serving as a College of Arts & Sciences senator this year, I have had the opportunity to see firsthand the impact that the Student Government Association makes in each college, and I would greatly value the chance to extend this influence to the entire campus. Texas Tech fosters a community of tradition and inclusion, and I hope to continue cultivating this environment as an advocate in an At-Large Senator position.
At-Large	Madeline Clark	Hello! My name is Madeline Clark, and I am honored to be the Empower Evermore candidate for Internal Vice President. Over the past three years in the Student Government Association, I have had the opportunity to serve in various roles, which have taught me the value of collaboration and equity in driving meaningful change. These experiences have strengthened my passion for amplifying student voices and fostering impactful partnerships. As Internal Vice President, I am dedicated to uniting the 61st Student Senate to create lasting progress for all Red Raiders!

Position/College	Candidate Name	Statement
At-Large	Annmarie Farag	Hi everyone! My name is Annmarie Farag, and I major in Cell and Molecular Biology and I am running for an At-Large Senator! I am a Lubbock local and strive for the betterment of TTU, and as a senator, I hope to do just that!
At-Large	Charleigh Feuerbacher	I am excited to share my candidacy for At-Large Senator. I am a well-rounded candidate that will implement a servant leadership attitude. This opportunity would allow me to be hands on in creating an even stronger, more connected red raider community.
At-Large	Faith Geistweidt	Hey, my name is Faith Geistweidt and I am the Empower Evermore candidate for Student Body President. I truly believe Texas Tech University has given each of us the innate ability to pursue passions and break barriers. I will foster community by supporting student organizations, empowering growth with academic and professional resources, ensuring equal access to opportunities, and enriching campus life through vibrant and transformative initiatives. It would be a privilege to lead the student body of Texas Tech University and break barriers evermore
At-Large	Parker Joyce	Hey Red Raiders! I'm so excited to be on the ballot again this year running for Senator At-Large! I would love the opportunity to serve you again and continue to advocate for the needs of our campus!
At-Large	Sabrina Mannucci	As a current Rawls College of Business Senator I would like to continue being involved in Student Government and am wanting to serve the entire Texas Tech student body by running for an At-Large senate seat!
At-Large	Mignon Miller	I want to continue serving in the Student Government Association as an At-Large Senator to advocate for the diverse needs of the entire student body. My goal is to promote engagement, enhance student resources, and work toward meaningful initiatives that positively impact Texas Tech students.
At-Large	Emily Muehlstein	I chose to run for student government to use my voice and advocate for the unheard. My goal is to ensure that every student's concerns are addressed and that we can create an inclusive environment rooted in strong morals.
At-Large	Saleth Orozco	I am a proud Texas Tech student who cares about creating a welcoming and supportive environment for everyone who attends this university. I am running for an At-Large Senator position to make sure every student feels heard and included. My goal is to represent all the diverse voices on our campus and work toward positive changes that benefit everyone.
At-Large	Ashlyn Rockey	Hello, my name is Ashlyn Rockey, and I am running to be an At-Large senator with the Empower Evermore campaign. I have been involved in Student Government since my first year of college and have loved the opportunity to serve the incredible students at Texas Tech. I hope to create a lasting legacy by empowering every student and creating new opportunities to make Texas Tech the best place it could be! Wreck 'Em!

Position/College	Candidate Name	Statement
At-Large	Delaney Saunders	As a dedicated and active member of the Texas Tech community, I'm passionate about representing the diverse voices on campus and fostering meaningful change. With a focus on collaboration and innovative solutions, I aim to advocate for student needs, enhance campus resources, and make every Red Raider feel heard and valued.
At-Large	Aj Scovil	I am running to be a Senator to represent and advocate for the needs of our community. I am committed to fostering positive change, promoting student well-being, and ensuring every voice is heard.
At-Large	Teagan Stubblefield	Hi, my name is Teagan Stubblefield and I am running for an At-Large senate seat under the Empower Evermore campaign. I, as a kinesiology major and avid Texas Tech fan, have a personal interest in using my experience as a senator of the college of Arts and Sciences as a foundation to serve the general student population as an At-Large Senator. I am honored to have the opportunity to serve the greatest students at the greatest university in world and would love to do it again!
At-Large	Trista Tippin	I would love to run as an At-Large senator to spread positivity and change throughout our University. I currently hold the position of Senator of the College of Arts and Sciences and have loved this role and my impact on my classmates. I want to reach the next level by not only helping my specific college but the whole University.
Education	Addison Fitch	I am Addison Fitch from Elizabeth, Colorado, and a first-year student at Texas Tech University majoring in Elementary Education with the goal of becoming a teacher. I am running for the College of Education Senate position because I love being involved on campus and hope to make a difference in the College of Education and across Texas Tech University.
Education	Reese Walker	I'm Reese Walker, a freshman education major and a proud member of Kappa Alpha Theta. I'm running for office because I always want to be known as a leader on our campus, and ensure that every student's voice is heard. As a future teacher and the future of education, I'm committed to joining a group that involves lots of collaboration and creating opportunities for growth and success for all students here at Texas Tech.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Denis Drey Agbor	Hi everyone! My name is Denis Drey Agbor, and I'm a junior here at Texas Tech and a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. I'm thrilled to be running for a Senate position because I'm passionate about ensuring every voice on campus is heard and that our time at Tech is truly worthwhile. Through my experiences here, I've learned that while things may seem stable and organized, there's always room for growth and improvement. As someone who's actively involved and well-connected within the Texas Tech community, I'm committed to using my platform to advocate for positive change and help us all fully enjoy the benefits of being Red Raiders. Let's work together to make a difference!

Position/College	Candidate Name	Statement
Engineering (Whitacre)	Ryan Cavazos	My name is Ryan Cavazos, and I am a junior majoring in civil engineering at Texas Tech University. From August 2023 to December 2024, I had the incredible opportunity to co-found the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity on campus and was honored to serve as its founding president, elected by my brothers. Throughout this journey, I have gained invaluable experience in leadership, service, integrity, and excellence—qualities that I am eager to bring to the Student Government Association. I am committed to using these values to help drive meaningful change, foster a stronger sense of community, and contribute to the continued growth and success of Texas Tech.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Isaac Dauphin	Hello! My name is Isaac Dauphin, and I am running for a Senate seat in the Whitacre College of Engineering. If elected, my goals are to update older engineering classrooms and provide studying lounges in all of the buildings in the Engineering Key so that students can learn more effectively and have spaces to study with other engineers.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Hunter Hamilton	My name is Hunter Hamilton, and I am a Petroleum Engineering major running for a Senate seat in the Whitacre College of Engineering. I am committed to exploring innovative ideas to enhance the quality of services we, as students, experience daily.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Eli Heath (Empower Evermore)	I am running for re-election with Empower Evermore! As an Engineering Senator this past year, I have worked hard to address student issues and ensure all student voices are heard and represented. This year, I passed several legislative bills and resolutions to better student experience at Texas Tech, and I hope to continue this over the next school year!
Engineering (Whitacre)	Evan McAllaster	Hey Red Raiders! I'm Evan McAllaster, a sophomore petroleum engineering major and 2nd generation Tech student. I am running to represent you, my fellow Whitacre College of Engineering students, in the SGA Senate. I want to increase underclassmen participation in recruiting and create more engineering specific recruitment resources. I would appreciate your support by voting for me!
Engineering (Whitacre)	Mia McCall	As a second-year Chemical Engineering student, I am driven to elevate the experiences and opportunities for our engineering community. Through my growing network of industry leaders and witnessing pivotal moments like the swearing-in of the 89th legislature, I'm inspired to bring valuable connections and partnerships directly to Texas Tech students. Together, we have the power to redefine what it means to be an engineer at Texas Tech!
Engineering (Whitacre)	Nick McCalley	I am passionate about creating a stronger, more inclusive campus community where every student's voice is heard. I seek this awesome office to help address student concerns, promote positive changes, and ensure our school is a place where everybody can thrive. Together, we can make real change.

Position/College	Candidate Name	Statement
Engineering (Whitacre)	Gaby Repetto	Hello fellow students and staff, My name is Gaby Repetto and I am running for WCOE Senator. The reason why I am running is because as a sophomore in Civil I have made many connections through the engineering departments that have shown me many changes that need to be made. As a Senator I would like to make those changes and keep improving our programs for us and the future generations.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Meg Ridens	My name is Meg Ridens, and I am currently pursuing a degree in Petroleum Engineering. I am eager to be running in the 2025 election in order to bring about change within our university. I plan on being the voice for my peers to advocate for the wants and needs within our college.
Engineering (Whitacre)	Grant Thomas	I am eager to represent the School of Petroleum Engineering in student government to advocate for STEM resources and initiatives that strengthen industry connections and opportunities for engineering students. My focus will also be on promoting professional development through career preparation and mentorship programs to support student success.
Graduate	Moyinoluwa Adeniyi	I dedicate myself to advancing student well-being, promoting equity and inclusivity, amplifying student voices, enhancing campus life, and fostering transparency to build a stronger, more united college community.
Graduate	Nixon Chekenya	I am an economist and political scientist and currently a PhD Student in Political Science at Texas Tech University. In addition, I am a Distinguished Graduate Student Fellow, Research and Teaching Assistant. I received my MS in agricultural and applied economics from Texas Tech University and my BCom in economics is from Midlands State University. I am deeply interested in serving in the Senate because of my deep desire to participate in the design and writing of pieces of legislation and community service. This is my small way of giving back to a community that has impacted my life in a way I never imagined. I will never be able to repay that generosity, and can only say YES to this call to serve.
Graduate	Prince Ozioma Emmanuel	I will be running with the Empower Everyone Block and I look forward to working alongside other senator's and executives in ensuring we have a community that is approachable and representing the interests of over 40,000 TTU students.
Graduate	Mojibola Fowowe	I am an international doctoral student passionate about decisive leadership and fostering an inclusive community. I aim to represent diverse voices and drive meaningful change within our student body. Serving in the SGA Senate would be an honor and an opportunity to advance these goals.
Graduate	Scarlett Gott	I received my undergraduate degrees in psychology and communications. I am currently pursuing my masters in Clinical Mental Health Counseling. Through my experience I hope to serve the student body and community from a holistic perspective. I strive to lead with servant heart in order to facilitate sustainable change and growth.

Position/College	Candidate Name	Statement
Graduate	Halkano M. Hargura	I am a graduate student in General Curriculum & Instruction. Currently the EGSO President. Transformation in unison with students and faculty members is at the core of my priorities to ensure academic (Research) progress.
Graduate	Lynne Kirkpatrick	My name is Lynne Kirkpatrick, and I am honored to be running for Graduate Senator here at Texas Tech. As a transfer student, I understand the significance of feeling at home in a new community. My vision is to strengthen relationships between students and faculty, as well as create more opportunities for graduate students to immerse themselves in university culture. By serving on Student Senate, I intend to be a vocal advocate for initiatives that promote unity and enhance the graduate student experience.
Graduate	Millicent Sifuna	I firmly believe that every graduate student deserves to feel safe, heard, and understood. When students have a supportive environment, they can dedicate their full energy to their research and teaching. This not only enhances individual research productivity and teaching excellence but also contributes to the overall success and reputation of our university. By fostering such an environment, we create a culture where everyone—students, faculty, and staff—feels valued and content. My goal is to ensure that all graduate students have the resources and support they need to thrive, enabling us to collectively achieve excellence and make our university a better place for all.
Honor College	Damian Al Khayatt	I am Damian Al Khayatt, a freshman pre-medical biochemical sciences student in the Arts / Sciences College and Honors College running for the president's position for these colleges. Approaching you with the officer position, I have a desire to improve information exposure to students, engaging activities for social gatherings, goals to improve student performance, research exposure, and make the school year easier for incoming freshmen. Running as your officer will not only give me exposure to the issues needing refinishing but it would help Student Government be a step towards success in the upcoming years for Texas Tech University.
Honor College	Samuel Alessio	Samuel's goals as a senator for the Honors College would be to increase the student body's awareness of the honors college and enhance the opportunities for honors courses and HE+ credits.
Honor College	Henry Carter	Hello, I'm Henry Carter, an Honors Science and The Humanities first-year completing the PPEL concentration and as a student who is completely housed in the Honors College, I am asking to be the College's student senator in the SGA to give a clear voice that understands what honors students are asking for. Some of the issues I would push to change could range from honors specific such as finding ways to expand parking for the Honors dorm to general issues like more funding for student organizations. Together let's make it possible while at tech!

Position/College	Candidate Name	Statement
Honor College	Katherine Kimberlin	Hello! My name is Katherine Kimberlin and I am running for Honors College Senator! I am a big advocate for getting involved in the Texas Tech campus and in the amazing community that embodies it! As Honors College Senator, I want to and am committed to making your voices heard within the Texas Tech community and through the Senate so that we can build upon this foundation and strive towards a great future for the Honors College! Your support is deeply appreciated and, as always, Wreck 'Em!
Honor College	James Vartian	As a devoted member of our university, I am incredibly grateful for the relationships and experiences I have gained here. Despite my initial reluctance to move so far from home, I adored this school. However, unlike many, I am not afraid to say that while I love this place, some problems need to be addressed—and we need someone who can take the initiative and call out these issues so we can address them, I think I am the person we need.
Honor College	Skye Ware	As a proud member of the Honors College, I am passionate about representing our often overlooked community at Texas Tech. My goal is to advocate for the needs and interests of Honors students by elevating their voices, supporting academic and extracurricular opportunities, and ensuring that all of their needs are prioritized. I am committed to creating a community where Honors students can thrive both academically and personally.
Honor College	Ella Webb	My name is Ella Webb, and I am a sophomore Honors Sciences and Humanities major. I am running for the Honors senator position because the Honors College has inspired me to push myself academically and grow as a student. Through this role, I aim to inform Texas Tech students about the opportunities and resources the Honors College offers and how it can positively impact their academic journey.
Human Sciences	Maggie Feezel	My name is Maggie Feezel and I am a sophomore in Human Sciences college. I am running to be a senator to help be a voice for students and make a difference on campus. It would be an honor to represent this college while fulfilling my degree at Texas Tech.
Human Sciences	Cinthya Proye	Hello everyone, I am Cinthya Proye, and I am running to be a Human Science senator with Empower Evermore. I am running because I am passionate about Texas Tech and our community and would like to make a positive impact. The College of Human Sciences matters a lot to me, and being a senator would allow me to represent the needs and the voices of my fellow students.
Human Sciences	Sarah Richart	My name is Sarah Richart, and I'm running to bring some much needed positive change to our campus. I have experience working with the SGA as a First Year Council Member and as the Miss Military Star Texas, and I'm ready to take the leap of faith to become a senator for Human Sciences. I can't do it alone, so let's work together as students to help our campus!

Position/College	Candidate Name	Statement
Human Sciences	Taylor Russo	Hi I am Taylor Russo and I will be running for a senator position in the college of Human Sciences. I am a Freshman here at Texas Tech and am involved in First Year Leadership Association in Student Government and am a member of Kappa Alpha Theta. I am so excited to be running for this leadership position and can't wait to bring new ideas as a representative for the college of Human Sciences!
Law School	Lettie Morris	Hey Texas Tech! I'm running for law school senate to maximize our graduate student lifestyle. I plan to achieve this through better connecting our law students with what is available to them as a Red Raider from campus-wide resources to experiences and Tech traditions, as well as advocate for the law schools inclusion in all campus and SGA initiatives.
Law School	Taylor O'Brien	My name is Taylor O'Brien, and I am the Graduate Vice President candidate for Empower Evermore. As a law student, I aim to help Texas Tech graduate students reach their professional goals by providing tools and opportunities for success on campus and post-graduation. I have the drive and dedication to advocate for progress, and I would be honored to serve as a voice for the graduate students of Texas Tech University.
Law School	Hannah Saegert	Hello Tech students! I am so excited to be running for Law School Senator with the hopes of growing the connection between law students and the rest of the student body. I am passionate about promoting tradition and unity on campus, and I would love the opportunity to advocate for you. I am committed to taking on this responsibility, and I am proud to showcase the privilege of being a Red Raider!
Media & Communications	Yemi Akinyeye	My name is Yemi Akinyeye and I am running for senate of The College of Media & Communications. The Red Raider spirit here at Texas Tech University is a monumental force that is ultimately made possible by the unique voices and faces of the students that attend this prodigious institution. My plan as your future senator is to amplify the voices of the unheard, create quality solutions to counteract unjust problems and implement beneficial change for the common good that will enable Raiderland to stand strong not just for a better today but also tomorrow.
Media & Communications	Cami Gutierrez	I believe that representing the student body is not just a responsibility—it's an opportunity to amplify the voices of those who matter most: the students themselves. It's about giving our peers the platform to speak on the issues that affect us directly—issues only we, as students, truly understand. I'm running for SGA senator because I believe every voice, no matter how small, deserves to be heard and valued. Together, we can ensure that every student's perspective is represented, and that our campus is a place where all voices matter.

Position/College	Candidate Name	Statement
Media & Communications	Andrew Hernandez	I am Andrew Hernandez, a student who is majoring in communications studies and minoring in legal studies. I will be running for a College of Media and Communications Senator position because I want to be at the forefront of making Texas Tech safer, easier to navigate, and less intimidating for all students. Especially in the College of Media and Communications, where it can be hard to find and use all of its resources.
Media & Communications	Ava Lansdell	I am a passionate advocate for positive change and a dedicated problem-solver with a commitment to serving my community. I am running for office to help create solutions that address the needs of everyone, ensuring our collective progress and well-being. My goal is to foster transparency, fairness, and growth in our shared future!
Media & Communications	Vivian Monaco	I would love to run for office again because I love being involved in something bigger than myself. I have always felt everyone is entitled to have their voice heard and believe I can help others have a voice in becoming a representative senator for my college.
Media & Communications	America Rodriguez	My name is America Rodriguez, and I am a senior pursuing a degree in Public Relations and Strategic Communications. I am passionate about collaboration, setting meaningful goals, and supporting my fellow Red Raiders. I am running for Senate to make a lasting, positive impact on the Texas Tech student body and help create a brighter future for us all.
Rawls College of Business	Noah Aberkane	I am running as a Senator for the Rawls College of Business to represent my peers, advocate for meaningful changes, and enhance our academic and campus experience. I'm committed to being a dedicated voice for the Rawls community.
Rawls College of Business	Annabelle Bennett	Hi! My name is Annabelle Bennett, and I am an accounting major from Lubbock, Texas! I love Texas Tech, and I hope to gain your trust to represent the Rawls College of Business through the Student Government Association! I can't wait to meet and create more friendships with the students at Tech! Wreck 'Em!
Rawls College of Business	Gabriella Caro	My name is Gabriella Caro and I'm a Business major with a focus in management and marketing. I grew up here in Lubbock so Texas Tech has always been a big part of my life. By becoming your Senator with Empower Evermore for the Rawls College of Business, I plan to be the voice for us and make sure we are thoroughly heard.
Rawls College of Business	Collin Cash	I am inspired to run for office because I have watched my dad serve the school, and his dedication motivates me to do my best to make our school even better. I am committed to listening to others, working hard, and making a positive impact for everyone in our community.
Rawls College of Business	Portia Clary	I am a Business Management and Pre-Med student and I am proud to be from Lubbock, TX. Growing up in West Texas has instilled in me the values of hard-work, service, and dedication. I am running for Rawls Senator because I believe I can serve Texas Tech by advocating for others and being an active leader in working to improve our university.

Position/College	Candidate Name	Statement
Rawls College of Business	Savannah Cox	My name is Savannah Cox, and I am a freshman in the Honors College as well as the Rawls College of Business, majoring in Business Management and Marketing. I am running for office because I am passionate about making an impact at Texas Tech University by representing our student body. My goal is to provide students with various opportunities and help set them up for success both academically and personally.
Rawls College of Business	Kate Fitzmaurice	Hi! I want to be a senator because after seeing what happens during senate each week, I want to be the one doing something to improve Texas Tech, even slightly. Everyone I have met who is a part of SGA has been so kind and inviting. I'm pushed to always share my viewpoint and not just be too easily swayed!
Rawls College of Business	Camryn Grimes	My name is Camryn Grimes and I am an honors student studying marketing here at Tech! I was born and raised here in Lubbock, so I've been a Red Raider for as long as I can remember. I would love nothing more than to serve this place that has felt like home and help it feel like home to others!
Rawls College of Business	AJ Jassani	My name is AJ Jassani, I'm an accounting major running to be a senator for the Rawls College of Business. I aim to bring increased academic resources, to generate a collaborative environment, as well as increase student voices on campus. With a lifelong passion for Texas Tech University, I'm committed to making a positive impact and faithfully serving our student community. Wreck 'Em!
Rawls College of Business	Hannah Lockett	My name is Hannah Lockett, and I am a sophomore at the Rawls College of Business. I am running for office because I want to make a difference in my community and campus. I love Texas Tech, and I want to give back to the university that has given me so much!
Rawls College of Business	Katie Mills	My name is Katie Mills, I am currently a freshman here at Texas Tech. I see that Texas Tech is progressing every year in various aspects, but I also recognize our duty as student government to hold onto the universities values. I joined student government to be a part of this changing campus, but also to serve our student and preserve the Texas Tech principals.
Rawls College of Business	Waez Sattar	My name is Waez Sattar, a junior studying Accounting and currently serving as the Treasurer of the Dean's Student Council at Rawls College of Business. I'm running for Senator because I am passionate about effectively representing the valuable voices of my peers in the Senate and creating impactful changes that enhance our experience as business students at Rawls. I aim to ensure that every student at Rawls feels empowered and supported in their academic journey and set up for professional success.
Rawls College of Business	Sara Swedan	Hello, my name is Sara, and I am running to be a Rawls College Senator as part of the Empower Evermore Campaign. I'm committed to amplifying your voices, fostering inclusivity, and creating academic and professional growth opportunities. Together, we can strengthen our community and drive meaningful change.

Position/College	Candidate Name	Statement
Visual & Performing Arts	Melissa Casillas	Melissa Casillas is a Junior BFA Dance student originally from Tijuana, Mexico. She is running for senator for the Visual and Performing Arts College because she wants to ensure that every student's needs and concerns are heard within the student government. Advocating for opportunities that will foster creative growth, aiming to create a more supportive and enriching environment for all visual and performing arts majors.