

DACA Renewal Tip Sheet

Applying for Renewal

DACA renewal applications may be filed if:

- Your DACA term expires between September 5, 2017 and March 5, 2018;
- USCIS receives your renewal application by October 5, 2017;
- You did not depart the US on or after August 15, 2012 without advance parole;
- You have continuously resided in the US since your most recent DACA request was approved; and
- You have not been convicted of a felony, significant misdemeanor, or three or more misdemeanors, and do not otherwise pose a threat to national security or public safety.

Documents Needed (submit all items together):

- USCIS Forms (obtain most current forms from USCIS website or USCIS will reject your form):
 - ◊ Form I-821D, Consideration of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals
 - ◊ Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization
 - ◊ Form I-765W, Worksheet
 - ◊ Optional (for email/text notifications) Form G-1145
- Fees: $495 Filing Fee (Payable to U.S. Department of Homeland Security)
- Proof of Current DACA Status
 - ◊ Work Permit
 - ◊ Past DACA Approval Notice
 - ◊ Optional:
 - State ID/Driver's License
 - Social Security Card
- Two Passport Photos

Resources

- USCIS website: <https://www.uscis.gov/humanitarian/consideration-deferred-action-childhood-arrivals-process/renew-your-daca>
- ILRC website: <https://www.ilrc.org/daca>
- Informed Immigrant website: https://www.informedimmigrant.com/?utm_campaign=dacasearch&utm_source=google&utm_medium=cpc&utm_content=enpl#
- Equal Justice Center website: <http://www.equaljusticecenter.org/what/daca.html>

Notes:

- If you have never enrolled in DACA, it is too late to apply; all initial requests for DACA must have been accepted by USCIS by September 5, 2017
- Initial applications accepted by USCIS by September 5, 2017 will be adjudicated by USCIS
- USCIS will no longer approve advance parole requests associated with DACA
- If your DACA enrollment expires after March 5, 2018, you cannot file for renewal at this time
- It is not advisable for DACA recipients to leave the United States

Information contained in this document is provided for general informational purposes and does NOT constitute legal advice. Legal assistance should be sought for verification and clarification of all statements made herein.