On behalf of the Student Activities Board Spirit & Traditions committee I want to thank you for showing interest in participating in this year's Homecoming Week events! We are excited to host our traditional Homecoming Week for the Fall 2020 semester the week of October 19-24. As part of the Texas Tech Commitment, Homecoming will be a virtual event this year. Throughout the Homecoming Week festivities, we ask that your organization follows CDC, Lubbock, Texas Tech, and campus events guidelines. All organizations must practice social distancing and wear masks when gathering.

The Homecoming Handbook was designed as a place to find all the information your organization will need for every Homecoming event you can participate in. Please make sure to read all the information for the events your organization is interested in participating in. The last pages of the Handbook are a theme selection form and a signature sheet that MUST BE COMPLETED AND SUBMITTED ELECTRONICALLY TO BETHANY.R.DELUNA@TTU.EDU and TROY.PIKE@TTU.EDU BEFORE ANY EVENT APPLICATIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED.

Please make note of the following changes in the application process for this year:

- ALL applications will be completed and submitted online only. There will be no paper applications to turn in this year.
- Organizations will be responsible for all policies and procedures outlined in the 2020 Homecoming Handbook. ALL Handbook signatures are required for an application to be considered complete. Online applications will be verified upon theme approval.
- Your organization's online applications will not be accepted unless the Theme/Signature page at the end of this Handbook has been completed and submitted.
- If you experience problems submitting or attaching any application documents on TechConnect, you can submit them to Bethany.r.deluna@ttu.edu.
- If a Student Organization and a Greek Organization are partnering together, the organizations must decide to compete with either the Greek or Student Organization title. This choice will be in place for the entire week.
