Office of the Provost

Teaching, Learning & Professional Development Center

It's a small but practical change! Save space on your syllabus with three new options when adding the Texas Tech policies to your course syllabi:

1. The syllabus information is included on the landing page when you log into Blackboard. The link to the required statements and to the recommended statements can be easily embedded in your Blackboard courses. Students can then download these PDF documents if desired.

We recommend that you add a statement to your syllabus that says, "Texas Tech Policies Concerning Academic Honesty, Special Accommodations for Students with Disabilities, and Student Absences for Observance of Religious Holy Days may be found on Blackboard."

2. If you prefer to add a link to your syllabus instead of adding information in Blackboard, you can add the link for the required syllabus policies: <https://www.depts.ttu.edu/tlpdc/RequiredSyllabusStatements.php>
You can add the link for the recommended syllabus policies here: <https://www.depts.ttu.edu/tlpdc/RecommendedSyllabusStatements.php>
3. If preferred, you can still add the required and/or recommended components to your syllabus.
