Connecting With Today's Students

Ameri shared that she will facilitate a tabling session in the free speech area on October 15th from 11:00-2:00. This is a time for members to engage with students, ask them about their “why” as a college student, and pass out shirts and snacks. She’ll send a newsletter soon with more info and a request for volunteers. A similar tabling session is being planned for late October that will involve students in the LA program.
